No. C-148-61

JUDGEMENT

The plaintiff having filed its complaint herein on September 8, 1961, charging the three defendants with a violation of Sections 1 and 2 of the Sherman Act, and Section 2(a) of the Clayton Act, as amended; the defendants having answered by denying they collectively violated Sections 1 and 2 of the Sherman Act and by denying that each violated Section 2(a) of the Clayton Act as amended; the matter having been tried before a jury, duly impaneled in this Court, beginning on February 4, 1963; the jury having heard the evidence and arguments of counsel; the Court having instructed the jury upon the law relating to the statutes, in question; the jury having deliberated and returned its verdict on February 22, 1963 in favor of defendants on the Section 1 and 2 claims and in favor of plaintiff on the claim under Section 2(a) of the Clayton Act; the jury having assessed damages against the defendants as follows:

Continental Baking Company	$24,994
Pet Milk Company	$44,197
Carnation Company	$29,277

and the Court having granted plaintiff's motion to treble the said amounts as required by Section 4 of the Clayton Act and to grant plaintiff's attorneys
