Paper Due Dates for the Two- and Three-Credit Courses

NB: These dates are deadlines. I read drafts and give comments in the order I receive the papers. Therefore, it pays to be early.

Wednesday, January 29	Need approval of question to be addressed on or before this date
Wednesday, February 5	First draft of introduction; identify key cases and key articles/blog posts Additional requirement for the 3-credit course: Outline of paper
Wednesday, February 26	Second draft of introduction; first draft of section providing motivation and background for the question to be addressed Additional requirement for the 3-credit course: Second draft of the outline of the paper
Wednesday, April 2	Complete first draft due
Monday, May 5	All final drafts are due

You should expect adjustments in the schedule as we go through the course. I will email a roadmap to the required reading before each future class. The required reading will always be on Canvas and Applied Antitrust.com, but the roadmap will provide you with some guidance as to how the reading will fit together with the class. I will try to send the email at least five or six days before each class.
