Premerger Notification

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
PROTECTING AMERICA'S CONSUMERS

Premerger Notification and the Merger Review Process

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino (HSR) Act, parties to certain large mergers and acquisitions must file premerger notification and wait for government review. The parties may not close their deal until the waiting period outlined in the HSR Act has passed, or the government has granted early termination of the waiting period. The FTC administers the premerger notification program, and its staff members answer questions and maintain a website with helpful information about how and when to file. The FTC also provides daily updates of deals that receive early termination.

Steps in the Merger Review Process

Step One: Filing Notice of a Proposed Deal

Not all mergers or acquisitions require a premerger filing. Generally, the deal must first have a minimum value and the parties must be a minimum size. These filing thresholds are updated annually. In addition, some stock or asset purchases are exempt, as are purchases of some types of real property. For further help with filing requirements, see the FTC's Guides to the Premerger Notification Program. There is a filing fee for premerger filings.

For most transactions requiring a filing, both buyer and seller must file forms and provide data about the industry and their own businesses. Once the filing is complete, the parties must wait 30 days (15 days in the case of a cash tender offer or a bankruptcy) or until the agencies grant early termination of the waiting period before they can consummate the deal.

Step Two: Clearance to One Antitrust Agency

Parties proposing a deal file with both the FTC and DOJ, but only one antitrust agency will review the proposed merger. Staff from the FTC and DOJ consult and the matter is "cleared" to one agency or the other for review (this is known as the "clearance process"). Once clearance is granted, the investigating agency can obtain non-public information from various sources, including the parties to the deal or other industry participants.

Step Three: Waiting Period Expires or Agency Issues Second Request

After a preliminary review of the premerger filing, the agency can:

1. terminate the waiting period prior to the end of the waiting period (grant Early Termination or "ET");
2. allow the initial waiting period to expire; or
3. issue a Request for Additional Information ("Second Request") to each party, asking for more information.

If the waiting period expires or is terminated, the parties are free to close their deal. If the agency has determined that it needs more information to assess the proposed deal, it sends both parties a Second Request. This extends the waiting period and prevents the companies from completing their deal until they have "substantially complied" with the Second Request and observed a second waiting period. A Second Request typically asks for business documents and data that will inform the agency about the company's products or services, market conditions where the company does business, and the likely competitive effects of the merger. The agency may conduct interviews (either informally or by sworn testimony) of company personnel or others with knowledge about the industry.

Step Four: Parties Substantially Comply with the Second Requests

Typically, once both companies have substantially complied with the Second Request, the agency has an additional 30 days to review the materials and take action, if necessary. (In the case of a cash tender offer or bankruptcy, the agency has 10 days to complete its review and the time begins to run as soon as the buyer has substantially complied.) The length of time for this phase of review may be extended by agreement between the parties and the government in an effort to resolve any remaining issues without litigation.

Step Five: The Waiting Period Expires or the Agency Challenges the Deal

The potential outcomes at this stage are:

1. close the investigation and let the deal go forward unchallenged;

2. enter into a negotiated consent agreement with the companies that includes provisions that will restore competition; or
3. seek to stop the entire transaction by filing for a preliminary injunction in federal court pending an administrative trial on the merits.

Unless the agency takes some action that results in a court order stopping the merger, the parties can close their deal at the end of the waiting period. Sometimes, the parties will abandon their plans once they learn that the agency is likely to challenge the proposed merger.

WHAT IS THE PREMERGER NOTIFICATION PROGRAM?

AN OVERVIEW

AN OVERVIEW

Guide I is the first in a series of guides prepared by the Federal Trade Commission's Premerger Notification Office ("PNO"). It is intended to provide a general overview of the Premerger Notification Program (the "Program") and to help the reader in determining which types of business transactions are reportable under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, 15 U.S.C. § 18a (§ 7A of the Clayton Act or "the Act"). Guide I describes the basic reportability requirements and how the program works. It also provides a list of alternative information sources to assist you in deciding whether or not you need to file. This Guide will introduce you to certain terminology and concepts regarding the Act and the Premerger Notification Rules (the "Rules"), 16 C.F.R. Parts 801, 802 and 803. Additional information can be obtained on the Federal Trade Commission's website at <https://www.ftc.gov/enforcement/premerger-notification-program>.

Guide II explains in greater detail certain terms used in the Act and the Rules, and shows how to determine if a transaction is reportable by analyzing a hypothetical transaction.

The Guides are not intended to address specific proposed transactions. If you are analyzing a transaction, we suggest that you consult the Act, the Rules, and the additional material referenced in Section XII of this Guide. If you have questions about the application of the Rules to a specific scenario, email the PNO at HSRHelp@ftc.gov.

I. INTRODUCTION

The Act requires that parties to certain mergers or acquisitions notify the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC” or the “Commission”) and the Department of Justice (“DOJ”) (together, the “enforcement agencies”) and observe a waiting period before closing the proposed transaction. The waiting period is usually 30 days, except in the case of a cash tender offer or a section 363(b) bankruptcy sale, when the waiting period is only 15 days. During this time, the enforcement agencies conduct a preliminary antitrust review of the proposed transaction.

The Program, which was created to implement the Act and to establish a uniform notification process, became effective September 5, 1978, after final promulgation of the Rules.¹ The review of transactions under the Program enables the FTC and the DOJ to determine which acquisitions are likely to be anticompetitive and to challenge them prior to consummation, when remedial action is most effective.

Whether a particular acquisition is subject to these requirements depends upon the value of the acquisition and the size of the parties, as measured by their sales and assets. Small acquisitions, acquisitions involving small parties, acquisitions involving passive investors, and other classes of acquisitions are excluded from the Act’s coverage.

If either agency determines during the waiting period that further inquiry is necessary, it is authorized by Section 7A(e) of the Clayton Act to request additional information or documentary materials from the parties to a reported transaction (a “second request”). A second request extends the waiting period for a specified period, usually 30 days (ten days in the case of a cash tender offer or a section 363(b) bankruptcy sale)², after all parties have complied with the second request (or, in the case of a tender offer or a bankruptcy sale, after the acquiring person complies). This additional time provides the reviewing agency with the opportunity to analyze the submitted information and to take appropriate action before the transaction is consummated. If the reviewing agency believes that a proposed transaction may violate the antitrust laws, it may seek an injunction in federal district court to prohibit consummation of the transaction.

The Rules, which govern compliance with the Program, are technical and complex. We have prepared Guide I to describe the structure of the Program and to introduce some of the Program’s specially defined terms and concepts.

II. DETERMINING REPORTABILITY

The Act requires persons contemplating proposed business transactions that satisfy certain size criteria to report their intentions to the enforcement agencies before consummating the transaction. If the proposed transaction is reportable, then both the acquiring person and the person whose business or assets are being acquired must submit information about their businesses and about what is being acquired to the enforcement agencies, and then wait a specific period of time before consummating the proposed transaction. During the waiting period, the enforcement agencies review the antitrust implications of the proposed transaction. Whether a particular transaction is reportable is determined by application of the Act, the Rules, and formal interpretations, and is also informed by informal staff interpretations.

¹ The Premerger Notification Rules are found at 16 C.F.R. Parts 801, 802 and 803. The Rules also are identified by number, and each Rule beginning with Rule 801.1 corresponds directly with the section number in the C.F.R. (so that Rule 801.40 would be found in 16 C.F.R. § 801.40). In this Guide, the Rules are cited by Rule number.

As a general matter, the Act and the Rules require both acquiring and acquired persons to file notifications under the Program if all of the following conditions are met:

1. As a result of the transaction, the acquiring person will hold an aggregate amount of voting securities, non-corporate interests (“NCI”), and/or assets of the acquired person valued in excess of $200 million (as adjusted)³, regardless of the sales or assets of the acquiring and acquired persons⁴; or
2. As a result of the transaction, the acquiring person will hold an aggregate amount of voting securities, NCI and/or assets of the acquired person valued in excess of $50 million (as adjusted) but at $200 million (as adjusted) or less; and
3. One person has sales or assets of at least $100 million (as adjusted); and
4. The other person has sales or assets of at least $10 million (as adjusted).

A. Size of Transaction Test

The first step in analyzing reportability is to determine what voting securities, NCI, assets, or combination thereof are being transferred in the proposed transaction. Then you must determine the value of the voting securities, NCI, and/or assets as well as the percentage of voting securities and NCI that will be “held as a result of the acquisition.” Calculating what will be held as a result of the acquisition (referred to as the “size of the transaction”) requires the application of several rules, including Rules 801.10, 801.12, 801.13, 801.14 and 801.15. Generally, the securities and/or NCI held as a result of the transaction include those that will be acquired in the proposed transaction, as well as any voting securities and/or NCI of the acquired person, or entities within the acquired person, that the acquiring person already holds. Assets held as a result of the acquisition include those that will be acquired in the proposed transaction as well as certain assets of the acquired person that the acquiring person has purchased within the time limits outlined in Rule 801.13.⁵

If the value of the voting securities, NCI, assets or combination thereof exceeds $200 million (as adjusted) and no exemption applies, the parties must submit a premerger notification filing and observe the waiting period before closing the transaction.

If the value of the voting securities, NCI, assets or combination thereof exceeds $50 million (as adjusted) but is $200 million (as adjusted) or less, the parties must look to the size of person test.

³ The 2000 amendments to the Act require the Commission to revise certain thresholds annually based on the change in the level of gross national product. A parenthetical “(as adjusted)” has been added where necessary throughout the Rules (and in this guide) to indicate where such a change in statutory threshold value occurs. The term “as adjusted” is defined in subsection 801.1 (n) of the Rules and refers to a table of the adjusted values published in the Federal Register notice titled “Revised Jurisdictional Thresholds for Section 7A of the Clayton Act.” The notice contains a table showing adjusted values for the rules and is published in January of each year.

⁴ See § 7A(a)(2) of the Act.

⁵ The Rules on when to aggregate the value of previously acquired voting securities and assets with the value of the proposed acquisition are discussed in greater detail in Guide II.

B. Acquiring and Acquired Persons/Acquired Entity

The first step in determining the size of person is to identify the “acquiring person” and “acquired person.” “Person” is defined in Rules 801.1(a)(1) and is the “ultimate parent entity” or “UPE” of the buyer or seller, i.e. the entity that ultimately controls the buyer or seller.⁶ The “acquired entity” is the specific entity whose assets, NCI, or voting securities are being acquired. The acquired entity may also be its own UPE or it may be an entity within the acquired person.

Thus, in an asset acquisition, the acquiring person is the UPE of the buyer, and the acquired person is the UPE of the seller. The acquired entity is the entity whose assets are being acquired. In a voting securities acquisition, the acquiring person is the UPE of the buyer, the acquired person is the UPE of the entity whose securities are being bought, and the acquired entity is the issuer of the securities being purchased. In an acquisition of NCI, the acquiring person is the UPE of the buyer, the acquired person is the UPE of the entity whose NCI are being bought, and the acquired entity is the entity whose NCI are being acquired. Often the acquired person and acquired entity are the same.

In many voting securities acquisitions, the acquiring person proposes to buy voting securities from minority shareholders of the acquired entity, rather than from the entity itself (tender offers are an example of this type of transaction). These transactions are subject to Rule 801.30, which imposes a reporting obligation on the acquiring person and on the acquired person, despite the fact that the acquired person may have no knowledge of the proposed purchase of its outstanding securities.⁷ For this reason, the Rules also require that a person proposing to acquire voting securities directly from shareholders rather than from the issuer itself serve notice on the issuer of the shares to ensure the acquired person knows about its reporting obligation.⁸

C. Size of Person Test

Once you have determined who the acquiring and acquired persons are, you must determine whether the size of each person meets the Act’s minimum size criteria. This “size of person” test generally measures a company based on the person’s latest regularly prepared annual statement of income and expenses and its latest regularly prepared balance sheet.⁹ The size of a person includes not only the entity that is making the acquisition or whose assets or securities are being acquired but also the UPE and any other entities the UPE controls.¹⁰

If the value of the voting securities, NCI, assets or combination thereof exceeds $50 million (as adjusted) but is $200 million (as adjusted) or less, the size of person test is met, and no exemption applies, the parties must submit a premerger notification filing and observe the waiting period before closing the transaction.

⁶ See “control” under 801.1(b).

⁷ See Rule 801.1; Rule 801.30.

⁸ See Rule 803.5.

⁹ See Rule 801.11.

¹⁰ See Rule 801.1(a)(1).

D. Notification Thresholds

The notification thresholds apply only to the buyer in acquisitions of voting securities. An acquisition that will result in a buyer holding more than $50 million (as adjusted) worth of the voting securities of an issuer crosses the first of five staggered “notification thresholds.”¹¹ The Rules identify four additional thresholds: voting securities valued at $100 million (as adjusted) or greater but less than $500 million (as adjusted); voting securities valued at $500 million (as adjusted) or greater; 25 percent of the voting securities of an issuer, if the 25 percent (or any amount above 25% but less than 50%) is valued at greater than $1 billion (as adjusted); and 50 percent of the voting securities of an issuer if valued at greater than $50 million (as adjusted). If a buyer is acquiring all of the voting securities of an issuer, it should choose the highest notification threshold, which is the 50 percent threshold, regardless of the corresponding dollar value.

The thresholds provide a basis for exemptions that relieve the parties of the burden of making multiple filings for successive acquisitions of voting securities of the same issuer. As such, when notification is filed, the acquiring person is allowed one year from the expiration of the waiting period to cross the threshold stated in the filing.¹² If the person reaches the stated threshold (or any lower threshold) within that year, it may continue acquiring voting shares up to the next threshold for five years from the end of the waiting period.¹³ If the person does not reach the stated threshold within a year from the expiration of the waiting period, the notification expires, and a new filing must be submitted prior to any new reportable acquisition. For example, if you file to acquire $100 million (as adjusted) of the voting securities of Company B and cross that threshold within one year, you would be able to continue to acquire voting securities of Company B for a total of five years without having to file again so long as your total holding of Company B’s voting securities did not exceed either $500 million (as adjusted) or 50 percent, i.e., additional notification thresholds. Once an acquiring person holds 50 percent or more of the voting securities of an issuer, all subsequent acquisitions of securities of that issuer are exempt.¹⁴

E. Exempt Transactions

In some instances, a notification is not required even if the size of person and the size of transaction tests have been satisfied. The Act and the Rules set forth a number of exemptions, describing particular transactions or classes of transactions that need not be reported despite meeting the threshold criteria.¹⁵ For example, certain acquisitions of assets in the ordinary course of a person’s business are exempted, including new goods and current supplies (e.g., an airline purchases new jets from a manufacturer, or a supermarket purchases its inventory from a wholesale distributor.)¹⁶ In addition, the acquisition of foreign assets are exempt where the sales in or into the U.S. attributable to those assets were $50 million (as adjusted) or less.¹⁷ Once it has been determined that a particular transaction is reportable, each party must submit its notification to the FTC and the DOJ. In addition, each acquiring person must pay a filing fee to the FTC for each transaction that it reports (with a few exceptions, see IV below).

¹¹ See Rule 801.1(h).

¹² See Rule 803.7.

¹³ See Rule 802.21.

¹⁴ See § 7A(c)(3) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a(c)(3).

¹⁵ See § 7A(c) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a(c), and Part 802 of the Rules, 16 C.F.R. Part 802.

¹⁶ See Rules 802.1(b) and 802.1(c).

¹⁷ See Rules 802.50 and 802.51.

III. THE FORM

The Notification and Report Form (“the Form”) solicits information that the enforcement agencies use to help evaluate the antitrust implications of the proposed transaction. Copies of the Form, Instructions, and Style Sheet are available from the PNO website at <https://www.ftc.gov/enforcement/premerger-notification-program>.

A. Information Reported

In general, a filing party is required to identify the persons involved and the structure of the transaction. The reporting person also must provide certain documents such as balance sheets and other financial data, as well as references to certain documents that have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition, the parties are required to submit certain planning and evaluation documents that pertain to the proposed transaction.

The Form also requires the parties to disclose whether the acquiring person and acquired entity currently derive revenue from businesses that fall within any of the same industry and product codes of the North American Industry Classification System (“NAICS”) and, for manufacturing industries, the North American Product Classification System (“NAPCS”),¹⁸ and, if so, in which geographic areas they operate. Identification of overlapping codes may indicate whether the parties engage in similar lines of business or if their products are differentiated. Acquiring persons must also describe certain previous acquisitions within the last five years of companies or assets engaged in businesses in any of the overlapping codes identified. Please note that an acquiring person must complete the Form for all of its operations; while an acquired person, on the other hand, must limit its response in Items 5 through 7 to the business or businesses being sold and does not need to answer Item 8.¹⁹ In addition, the acquired person does not need to respond to Item 6 in an asset-only transaction.

B. Contact Person

The parties are required to identify two individuals (listed in Item 1(g) of the Form) who are representatives of the reporting person and familiar with the content of the Form. These contact persons are, in most cases, either counsel for the party or an officer of the company. The listed contact persons must be available during the waiting period.

C. Certification and Affidavits

Rule 803.5 describes the affidavit that must accompany certain Forms. In 801.30 transactions where the acquiring person is purchasing voting securities from non-controlling shareholders, only the acquiring person must submit an affidavit. The acquiring person must state in the affidavit that it has a good faith intention of completing the proposed transaction and that it has served notice on the acquired person as to its potential reporting obligations.²⁰ In all other transactions, each of the ¹⁸ Information concerning NAICS and NAPCS codes is available at www.census.gov. In reporting information by 6 digit NAICS code, refer to the North American Industry Classification System - United States, 2017 published by the Executive Office of the President, Office of Management and Budget. In reporting information by 10-digit NAPCS code, refer to the concordance tables between 2012 product codes and 2017 NAPCS-based product codes published by the Bureau of the Census.

¹⁹ See 803.2(b).

²⁰ See Rule 803.5(a)(i)(I) through (vi) for the full requirements of such notice. In tender offers, the acquiring person also must affirm that the intention to make the tender offer has been publicly announced. See Rule 803.5(a)(2).

acquired and acquiring persons must submit an affidavit with their Forms, attesting to the fact that a contract, an agreement in principle, or a letter of intent has been executed and that each person has a good faith intention of completing the proposed transaction. The affidavit is intended to assure that the transaction is sufficiently ripe for notification and that the enforcement agencies will not be presented with hypothetical transactions for review.²¹

Rule 803.6 requires that the Form be certified and specifies who must make the certification. One of the primary purposes of the certification is to preserve the evidentiary value of the filing. It also is intended to place responsibility on an officer or a similarly situated individual within the filing person to ensure that the information reported is true, correct, and complete. Both the certification and the affidavit must be notarized, or may be signed under penalty of perjury.²²

D. Voluntary Information

The Rules provide that reporting persons may submit information that is not required by the Form.²³ If the reporting persons voluntarily provide information or documentary material that is helpful to the competitive analysis of the proposed transaction, this may expedite the enforcement agencies' review of a proposed transaction. However, voluntary submissions do not guarantee a speedy review. Voluntary submissions are included in the confidentiality coverage of the Act and the Rules.

E. Confidentiality

Neither the information submitted nor the fact that a notification has been filed is made public by the agencies except as part of a legal or administrative action to which one of the agencies is a party or in other narrowly defined circumstances permitted by the Act.²⁴ However, in response to inquiries from interested parties who wish to approach the agencies with their views about a transaction, the agencies may confirm which agency is handling the investigation of a publicly announced merger.²⁵ Additionally, the fact that a transaction is under investigation may become apparent if the parties announce it to the public or disclose it in other regulatory filings, or if the agencies interview third parties during their investigation.

F. Filing Procedures

Premerger notification filings are submitted electronically through a secure file transfer system that automatically directs the submissions to both the FTC and the DOJ premerger offices. The parties should follow the PNO Guidance for Filing Parties, available at <https://www.ftc.gov/enforcement/premerger-notification-program/covid-19-guidance-filing-parties>.

²¹ See Statement of Basis and Purpose to Rule 803.5, 43 Fed. Reg. 33510-33511 (1978).

²² 28 U.S.C. § 1746 allows use of the following statement in lieu of a notary's jurat: "I declare (or certify, verify or state) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on (date) [and] (Signature)." The italicized text is necessary only if signed outside the territorial United States.

²³ See Rule 803.1(b).

²⁴ See Section 7A(h) of the Act.

²⁵ A publicly announced merger is one in which a party to the merger has disclosed the existence of the transaction in a press release or in a public filing with a governmental body.

IV. THE FILING FEE

In connection with the submission of a premerger notification filing, Congress also mandated the collection of a fee from each acquiring person. The amount of the filing fee is based on the total value of the voting securities, NCI, or assets held as a result of the acquisition and is adjusted annually.²⁶ Information about the current fee tiers and fee amounts is available at <https://www.ftc.gov/enforcement/premerger-notification-program/filing-fee-information>. The site also provides instructions about paying the fee by electronic wire transfer (check payments are discouraged, but if a check is the only option to submit a fee, it should be a bank cashier's check or certified check), as required under Rule 803.9. For transactions in which more than one person is deemed to be the acquiring person, each acquiring person must pay the appropriate fee (except in consolidations and in transactions in which there are two acquiring persons that would have exactly the same responses to Item 5 of the Form).²⁷ In addition, an acquiring person will have to pay multiple filing fees if a series of acquisitions are separately reported.²⁸ The parties may split the filing fee however they decide, but must inform the PNO of their arrangement.

V. THE WAITING PERIOD

After filing, the filing parties must observe a statutory waiting period during which they may not consummate the transaction. The waiting period is 15 days for cash tender offers and section 363(b) bankruptcies, and 30 days for all other types of reportable transactions.²⁹ The waiting period may be extended by issuance of a request for additional information and documentary material.³⁰ Also, a waiting period that would end on a Saturday, Sunday or legal public holiday will expire on the next regular business day.

A. Beginning of the Waiting Period

In most cases, the waiting period begins after both the acquiring and acquired persons file completed Forms with both agencies. However, for certain transactions subject to 801.30, the waiting period begins after the acquiring person files a complete Form. In a reportable joint venture formation, the waiting period begins after all acquiring persons required to file submit complete Forms.³¹ Failure to pay the filing fee or the submission of an incorrect or incomplete filing may delay the start of the waiting period.³²

B. Early Termination of the Waiting Period

Any filing person may request that the waiting period be terminated before the statutory period expires. Such a request for "early termination" will be granted only if (1) at least one of the persons

²⁷ For example, if two separate UPEs jointly control an acquisition vehicle and own no other entities, their Item 5 27 responses would be identical.

²⁸ See Rule 803.9(a) - (c).

²⁹ See Rule 803.10; 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(2), as amended (1994).

³⁰ See Section VIII(C), infra.

³¹ The joint venture entity does not file. See Rule 802.41.

³² See Rules 803.3 and 803.10(a).

specifies it on the Form; (2) all persons have submitted compliant Forms; and (3) both antitrust agencies have completed their review and determined not to take any enforcement action during the waiting period.³³

The PNO is responsible for informing the parties that early termination has been granted. The Act requires that the FTC publish a notice in the Federal Register of each early termination granted. Moreover, grants of early termination also appear on the FTC's website at <https://www.ftc.gov/legal-library/browse/early-termination-notice>

It is important to note that early termination of the waiting period is entirely within the discretion of the enforcement agencies. For example, as of February 2021, the agencies have suspended grants of early termination, as explained in a press release at <https://www.ftc.gov/news-events/news/press-releases/2021/02/ftc-doj-temporarily-suspend-discretionary-practice-early-termination>.

VI. REVIEW OF THE FILING

Once parties submit their premerger notification filings, the enforcement agencies begin their review. The FTC is responsible for the administration of the Program. As a result, the PNO determines whether a filing complies with the Act and the Rules.

The premerger notification filing is assigned to a member of the PNO staff to assess whether the transaction was subject to the reporting requirements and whether the Form was completed accurately. If the filing appears to be deficient, the staff member will notify the contact person as quickly as possible so that errors can be corrected. It is important to address any errors as soon as possible because the waiting period will not commence until the Form is completed accurately, all required information and documentary material are supplied, and payment of the filing fee is received.³⁴

When the PNO determines that the premerger notification filings comply with all filing requirements, letters are sent as required by the Act and the Rules, identifying the beginning and ending of the waiting period, as well as the transaction number assigned to the filing. The conclusion that the parties have complied with the Act and the Rules may be modified later, however, if circumstances warrant.

VII. ANTITRUST REVIEW OF THE TRANSACTION

Initially, both enforcement agencies undertake a preliminary substantive review of the proposed transaction. The agencies analyze the premerger notification filings to determine whether the acquiring and acquired firms are competitors, or are related in any way such that a combination of the two firms might adversely affect competition. Staff members rely not only on the information included within the filing but also on publicly available information. The individuals analyzing the ³³ See Formal Interpretation 13 issued August 20, 1982.

Form often have experience either with the markets or the companies involved in the particular transaction. As a result, they may have industry expertise to aid in evaluating the likelihood that a merger may be harmful.

If, after preliminary review, either or both agencies decide that a particular transaction warrants closer examination, the agencies decide between themselves which one will be responsible for the investigation. Only one of the enforcement agencies will conduct an investigation of a proposed transaction. Other than members of the PNO, no one at either agency will initiate contact with any of the persons or any third parties until it has been decided which enforcement agency will be responsible for investigating the proposed transaction.³⁵ The clearance decision is made pursuant to an agreement that divides the antitrust work between the two agencies. This clearance procedure is designed to avoid duplication of effort and eliminate any confusion that could result if both agencies contacted individual persons at different times about the same matter.

Of course, any interested person, including either of the parties, is free to present information to either or both agencies at any time. However, if the clearance decision has not yet been resolved, the person must make a presentation, or provide written information or documents, to both agencies. If you are representing a party that wishes to make a presentation, or provide written information or documents, you may notify the PNO ; and the PNO will inform reviewing staff attorneys at both agencies that a party would like to make a presentation, or provide written information or documents.

VIII. SECOND REQUESTS

Once the investigating agency has clearance to proceed, it may ask any or all persons to the transaction to submit additional information or documentary material to the requesting agency. The request for additional information is commonly referred to as a “second request.”³⁶ As discussed above, although both agencies review each Form submitted to them, only one agency will issue second requests to the parties in a particular transaction.

A. Information Requested

Generally, a second request will solicit information on particular products or services in an attempt to assist the investigative team in examining a variety of legal and economic questions. A typical second request will include interrogatory-type questions as well as requests for the production of documents. A model second request has been produced jointly by the FTC and DOJ for internal use by their attorneys and is available at https://www.ftc.gov/system/files/ftc_gov/pdf/Final-Rev-Model-Second-Request-01-26-2024 . However, since every transaction is unique, the model second request should be regarded only as an example.

B. Narrowing the Request

Parties that receive a second request and believe that it is broader than necessary to obtain the information that the enforcement agency needs, may discuss the possibility of narrowing the ³⁵ Staff at either agency may initiate contact with a person prior to the resolution of which agency will handle the matter by first notifying the other agency and offering the other agency the opportunity to participate.

³⁶ See Rule 803.20(a)(1) for the identities of persons and individuals that are subject to such request.

request with the staff attorneys reviewing the proposed transaction. Often, the investigative team drafts a second request based only on information contained in the initial filing and other available material reviewed in the first 30 days after filing. At this point, the investigative team may not have access to specific information about the structure of the company or its products and services. By meeting with staff, representatives of the company have an opportunity to narrow the issues and to limit the required search for documents and other information. If second request modification issues cannot be resolved through discussion with staff, the agencies have a formal internal appeals process that centralizes in one decision maker for each agency the review of issues relating to the scope of and compliance with second requests.³⁷

The enforcement agency issuing the second request may have determined that certain data sought in the request can resolve one or more issues critical to the investigation. In such a situation, the agency's staff may suggest use of the informal "quick look" procedure. Under the quick look, the staff will request the parties to first submit documents and other information, which specifically address critical issues (e.g., market participants or ease of entry). If the submitted information resolves the staff's concerns in these areas, the waiting period will be terminated on a sua sponte basis and the parties will not have to respond to the full second request. Of course, if the submitted information does not resolve the staff's concerns on determinative issues, then the parties will need to respond to the full second request.

C. Extension of the Waiting Period

The issuance of a second request extends the statutory waiting period until 30 days (or in the case of a cash tender offer or section 363(b) bankruptcy filings, 10 days) after both parties are deemed to have complied with the second request (or in the case of a tender offer and bankruptcy, until after the acquiring person has complied).³⁸ During this time, the staff attorneys investigating the matter may also be interviewing relevant parties and using other forms of compulsory process to obtain information.

The second request must be issued by the enforcement agency before the waiting period expires. If the waiting period expires and the agencies have not issued a second request to the parties of the transaction, then the parties are free to consummate the transaction. The fact that the agencies did not issue second requests does not preclude them from initiating an enforcement action at a later time.³⁹ All of the agencies' other investigative tools are available to them in investigations.⁴⁰

³⁷ See 66 Fed. Reg. 8721-8722, February 1, 2001.

³⁸ See § 7A(e) of the Act.

³⁹ See § 7(A)(i)(1) of the Act.

⁴⁰ See § 7(A)(i)(1) of the Act.

IX. AGENCY ACTION

After analyzing all of the information available to them, the investigative staff will make a recommendation to either the Commission or the Assistant Attorney General (depending on which agency has clearance).

A. No Further Action

If the staff finds no evidence that competition will be reduced substantially in any market, it will recommend no further action. Assuming the agency concurs in that recommendation, the parties are then free to consummate their transaction upon expiration of the waiting period. As with a decision not to issue a second request, a decision not to seek injunctive relief at that time does not preclude the enforcement agencies from initiating a post-merger enforcement action at a later date.

B. Seeking Injunctive Relief

If the investigative staff believes that the transaction is likely to be anticompetitive, it may recommend that the agency initiate injunction proceedings in U.S. district court to halt the acquisition. If the Commission or the Assistant Attorney General concurs in the staff's recommendation, then the agency will file suit in the appropriate district court. If it is a Commission case, the FTC is required to file an administrative complaint within twenty days (or a lesser time if the court so directs) of the granting of its motion for a temporary restraining order or for a preliminary injunction.⁴¹ The administrative complaint initiates the FTC's administrative proceeding that will decide the legality of the transaction. If it is a DOJ case, the legality of the transaction is litigated in district court.

C. Settlements

During an investigation, the investigative staff may, if appropriate, discuss terms of settlement with the parties. The proposed settlement must then be presented to the Commission, accepted by a majority vote, and placed on the public record for a notice and comment period before it can be made final. Similarly, a proposed settlement negotiated by DOJ staff must be approved by the Assistant Attorney General and also placed on the public record for a notice and comment period before it will be entered by a district court pursuant to the provisions of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16(b)-(h).

X. FAILURE TO FILE

A. Civil Penalties

If you consummate a reportable transaction without filing the required prior notification or without waiting until the expiration of the statutory waiting period, you may be subject to civil penalties. The Act provides that "any person, or any officer, director or partner thereof" shall be liable for a penalty of up to $51,744 a day for each day the person is in violation of the Act. The enforcement agencies may also obtain other relief to remedy violations of the Act, such as an order requiring the person to divest assets or voting securities acquired in violation of the Act.⁴²

⁴¹ FTC Act Section 13(b).

B. Reporting Omissions

If you have completed a transaction in violation of the Act, it is important to bring the matter to the attention of the PNO and to file a notification as soon as possible in order to terminate the violation. The parties should include a letter with the notification from an officer or director of the company explaining why the notification was not filed in a timely manner, how and when the failure was discovered, and what steps have been taken to prevent a violation of the Act in the future. The letter should be addressed to the Deputy Director, Bureau of Competition, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Washington DC 20580.

For more information about post-consummation filings see the PNO guidance <https://www.ftc.gov/enforcement/premerger-notification-program/post-consummation-filings-hsr-violations>.

C. Deliberate Avoidance

The Rules specifically provide that structuring a transaction to avoid the Act does not alter notification obligations if the substance of the transaction is reportable.⁴³ For example, the agencies will seek penalties where the parties split a transaction into separate parts that are each valued below the current filing threshold in order to avoid reporting the transaction, but the fair market value of everything being acquired is actually above the notification threshold.⁴⁴

(d) Commission rules. The Federal Trade Commission, with the concurrence of the Assistant Attorney General and by rule in accordance with section 553 of title 5, consistent with the purposes of this section—

- (1) shall require that the notification required under subsection (a) of this section be in such form and contain such documentary material and information relevant to a proposed acquisition as is necessary and appropriate to enable the Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General to determine whether such acquisition may, if consummated, violate the antitrust laws; and
 - (2) may—
 - (A) define the terms used in this section;
 - (B) exempt, from the requirements of this section, classes of persons, acquisitions, transfers, or transactions which are not likely to violate the antitrust laws; and
 - (C) prescribe such other rules as may be necessary and appropriate to carry out the purposes of this section.
- (e) Additional information; waiting period extensions
- (1)
 - (A) The Federal Trade Commission or the Assistant Attorney General may, prior to the expiration of the 30-day waiting period (or in the case of a cash tender offer, the 15-day waiting period) specified in subsection (b)(1) of this section, require the submission of additional information or documentary material relevant to the proposed acquisition, from a person required to file notification with respect to such acquisition under subsection (a) of this section prior to the expiration of the waiting period specified in subsection (b)(1) of this section, or from any officer, director, partner, agent, or employee of such person.
 - (B)
 - (i) The Assistant Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission shall each designate a senior official who does not have direct responsibility for the review of any enforcement recommendation under this section concerning the transaction at issue, to hear any petition filed by such person to determine—
 - (I) whether the request for additional information or documentary material is unreasonably cumulative, unduly burdensome, or duplicative; or
 - (II) whether the request for additional information or documentary material has been substantially complied with by the petitioning person.
 - (ii) Internal review procedures for petitions filed pursuant to clause (i) shall include reasonable deadlines for expedited review of such petitions, after reasonable negotiations with investigative staff, in order to avoid undue delay of the merger review process.

- (iii) Not later than 90 days after December 21, 2000, the Assistant Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission shall conduct an internal review and implement reforms of the merger review process in order to eliminate unnecessary burden, remove costly duplication, and eliminate undue delay, in order to achieve a more effective and more efficient merger review process.
 - (iv) Not later than 120 days after December 21, 2000, the Assistant Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission shall issue or amend their respective industry guidance, regulations, operating manuals and relevant policy documents, to the extent appropriate, to implement each reform in this subparagraph.
 - (v) Not later than 180 days after December 21, 2000, the Assistant Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission shall each report to Congress— (I) which reforms each agency has adopted under this subparagraph; (II) which steps each has taken to implement such internal reforms; and (III) the effects of such reforms.
- (2) The Federal Trade Commission or the Assistant Attorney General, in its or his discretion, may extend the 30-day waiting period (or in the case of a cash tender offer, the 15-day waiting period) specified in subsection (b)(1) of this section for an additional period of not more than 30 days (or in the case of a cash tender offer, 10 days) after the date on which the Federal Trade Commission or the Assistant Attorney General, as the case may be, receives from any person to whom a request is made under paragraph (1), or in the case of tender offers, the acquiring person,
- (A) all the information and documentary material required to be submitted pursuant to such a request, or
 - (B) if such request is not fully complied with, the information and documentary material submitted and a statement of the reasons for such noncompliance. Such additional period may be further extended only by the United States district court, upon an application by the Federal Trade Commission or the Assistant Attorney General pursuant to subsection (g)(2) of this section.

(f) Preliminary injunctions; hearings. If a proceeding is instituted or an action is filed by the Federal Trade Commission, alleging that a proposed acquisition violates section 18 of this title, or section 45 of this title, or an action is filed by the United States, alleging that a proposed acquisition violates such section 18 of this title, or section 1 or 2 of this title, and the Federal Trade Commission or the Assistant Attorney General

- (1) files a motion for a preliminary injunction against consummation of such acquisition pendente lite, and
 - (2) certifies the United States district court for the judicial district within which the respondent resides or carries on business, or in which the action is brought, that it or he believes that the public interest requires relief pendente lite pursuant to this subsection, then upon the filing of such motion and certification, the chief judge of such district court shall immediately notify the chief judge of the United States court of appeals for the circuit in which such district court is located, who shall designate a United States district judge to whom such action shall be assigned for all purposes.
- (g) Civil penalty; compliance; power of court.
 - (1) Any person, or any officer, director, or partner thereof, who fails to comply with any provision of this section shall be liable to the United States for a civil penalty of not more than $10,000 for each day during which such person is in violation of this section. Such penalty may be recovered in a civil action brought by the United States.
 - (2) If any person, or any officer, director, partner, agent, or employee thereof, fails substantially to comply with the notification requirement under subsection (a) of this section or any request for the submission of additional information or documentary material under subsection (e)(1) of this section within the waiting period specified in subsection (b)(1) of this section and as may be extended under subsection (e)(2) of this section, the United States district court—
 - (A) may order compliance;
 - (B) shall extend the waiting period specified in subsection (b)(1) of this section and as may have been extended under subsection (e)(2) of this section until there has been substantial compliance, except that, in the case of a tender offer, the court may not extend such waiting period on the basis of a failure, by the person whose stock is sought to be acquired, to comply substantially with such notification requirement or any such request; and
 - (C) may grant such other equitable relief as the court in its discretion determines necessary or appropriate, upon application of the Federal Trade Commission or the Assistant Attorney General.
- (h) Disclosure exemption. Any information or documentary material filed with the Assistant Attorney General or the Federal Trade Commission pursuant to this section shall be exempt from disclosure under section 552 of title 5, and no such information or documentary material may be made public, except as may be relevant to any administrative or judicial action or proceeding. Nothing in this section is intended to prevent disclosure to either body of Congress or to any duly authorized committee or subcommittee of the Congress.
- (i) Construction with other laws
 - (1) Any action taken by the Federal Trade Commission or the Assistant Attorney General or any failure of the Federal Trade Commission or the Assistant Attorney General to take any action under this section shall not bar any proceeding or any action with respect to such acquisition at any time under any other section of this Act or any other provision of law.

- (2) Nothing contained in this section shall limit the authority of the Assistant Attorney General or the Federal Trade Commission to secure at any time from any person documentary material, oral testimony, or other information under the Antitrust Civil Process Act [15 U.S.C. 1311 et

(k) Extensions of time. If the end of any period of time provided in this section falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal public holiday (as defined in section 6103 (a) of title 5), then such period shall be extended to the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal public holiday.

Both updates are discussed in more detail below.

(1) The Jurisdictional Thresholds

Section 7A(a)(2) requires the Federal Trade Commission to revise those thresholds annually, based on the change in gross national product, in accordance with section 8(a)(5).

The new jurisdictional thresholds, which take effect 30 days after publication in the Federal Register, are as follows:

Public Law 117–328, 136 Stat. 4459, requires the Federal Trade Commission to revise these filing fee thresholds and amounts based on the percentage change in the GNP for such fiscal year compared to the GNP for the year ending September 30, 2022 (for the filing fee thresholds) and the percentage increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index, as determined by the Department

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

[NIOSH Docket 094]

World Trade Center Health Program; Petitions 031, 036, 039, and 053—Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis; Finding of Insufficient Evidence

AGENCY: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Health and Human Services (HHS).

ACTION: Denial of petitions for addition of a health condition.

SUMMARY: The Administrator of the World Trade Center (WTC) Health Program received four petitions (Petitions 031, 036, 039, and 053) to add amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) to the List of WTC-Related Health Conditions (List). Upon reviewing the scientific and medical literature, including information provided by petitioners, the Administrator determined that there is insufficient evidence to support taking further action at this time regarding ALS. The Administrator also finds that insufficient evidence exists to request a recommendation of the WTC Health Program Scientific/Technical Advisory Committee (STAC), to publish a proposed rule, or to publish a determination not to publish a proposed rule.

DATES: The Administrator of the WTC Health Program is denying these petitions for the addition of a health condition as of January 22, 2025.

ADDRESSES: Visit the WTC Health Program website at <https://www.cdc.gov/wtc/received.html> to review Petitions 031, 036, 039, and 053.

MAJOR CHANGES TO THE HSR FORM ADOPTED IN 2024

On October 10, 2024, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), with the concurrence of the Department of Justice (DOJ), finalized sweeping amendments to the Hart-Scott-Rodino (HSR) premerger notification requirements.¹ These are the most significant changes to the HSR form and process in more than 45 years. The new rules, effective February 10, 2025, expand the scope of information required, formalize new documentation expectations, and establish differentiated requirements based on the type of transaction and the filer's role. The goal is to equip the antitrust agencies with deeper insights into competitive effects earlier in the review process.

Key Changes under the 2024 HSR Revisions

1. Separate Forms for Acquiring and Acquired Persons

For the first time, the HSR form will differ based on whether the filer is the acquiring person or the acquired person. The acquiring person must now provide significantly more detail, including:

- Ownership structure charts
- Descriptions of transaction structure and rationale
- Information on minority investors with certain control rights
- Lists of other jurisdictions where filings are required
- Identifications of overlapping officers and directors (Clayton Act §8 concerns)

In contrast, the acquired person generally has fewer obligations but still must supply overlap and transaction-related data.

2. New Narrative Disclosures

Filers must provide:

- Strategic rationale for the transaction, including supporting documents

¹ Press Release, Fed. Trade Comm'n, FTC Finalizes Changes to Premerger Notification Form (Oct. 10, 2024). The Federal Register published the final rule on November 12, 2024, with an effective date of February 10, 2025. Premerger Notification; Reporting and Waiting Period Requirements, 89 Fed. Reg. 89216 (Nov. 12, 2024). In January 2025, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and other business groups filed a lawsuit challenging the FTC's new HSR rules, alleging that the agencies promulgated a rule in excess of their statutory authority and as arbitrary and capricious in violation of the Administrative Procedure Act. Notably, the plaintiffs did not seek a temporary restraining order (TRO) or a preliminary injunction to halt the implementation of the new rules. Consequently, the rules became effective on February 10, 2025, as scheduled. The lawsuit remains pending, and its outcome could potentially impact the enforcement of these rules. See Complaint for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief, Chamber of Commerce v. FTC, No. 6:25-cv-00009 (E.D. Tex. filed Jan. 10, 2025). The court granted the FTC's motion for an extension of time and set the deadline for the filing of the FTC's answer as April 10, 2025.

- Descriptions of horizontal overlaps (current and potential), including sales figures, categories of customers, and top 10 customers
- Descriptions of vertical relationships, including top customers and suppliers and annual sales/purchases for relevant products
- A brief business description, including current and planned products or services

The FTC significantly pared back the 2023 proposal's more burdensome narrative requirement. Filers are not required to prepare a formal white paper or economic analysis, but must use business language natural to the industry.

3. Expanded Document Production

New requirements extend to:

- Supervisory Deal Team Lead documents: These now qualify as Item 4(c) documents. The lead is defined as the person primarily responsible for the strategic deal assessment but who is not an officer or director.
- Ordinary course plans and reports: Any strategic document provided to the CEO or Board within one year of filing that discusses markets, competition, or overlapping products must be submitted.
- All transaction-related agreements: Beyond the principal agreement, parties must submit exhibits, side letters, non-compete clauses, and similar documents (excluding clean team agreements).
- Drafts: While draft versions of Item 4(c)/(d) documents are not required, any document shared with even a single Board member is deemed final and must be submitted.

4. Tailored Requirements by Transaction Type

The new rule creates three categories of HSR filings:

- “Select 801.30 transactions”
 - For example, open market purchases that do not entail control or board rights
 - ~8% of filings. These are subject to limited disclosure obligations.
- “No-overlap” filings (e.g., deals with no horizontal or vertical relationship):
 - ~47% of filings. Providing exemptions from many of the more burdensome requirements.
- “Overlap” filings:
 - ~45% of filings. These are subject to all new requirements.

5. Additional Required Information

- Disclosure of foreign subsidies from “countries of concern”
- Identification of defense or intelligence contracts
- Disclosure of minority investors with certain control or governance rights
- Listing of prior acquisitions (now required for the acquired person as well)

Estimated Filing Burden

The FTC estimates that the average time required to prepare an HSR filing will increase by 68 to 121 hours, depending on the transaction type and role of the filer. This is two to four times longer than under the prior form, which took an estimated 37 hours on average. The burden is highest for acquiring persons in overlap transactions, who must supply the broadest range of narratives, data, and documents.

THIS FORM IS REQUIRED BY LAW and must be filed separately by each person that, by reason of a merger, consolidation, or acquisition, is subject to § 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a, and rules promulgated thereunder (hereinafter referred to as “the rules” or by section number). The rules may be found at 16 CFR Parts 801-03. Failure to file this Notification and Report Form, and to observe the required waiting period before consummating the acquisition in accordance with the applicable provisions of 15 U.S.C. § 18a and the rules, subjects any “person,” as defined in the rules, or any individuals responsible for noncompliance, to liability for a penalty for each day during which such person is in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 18a. The maximum daily civil penalty amount is listed in 16 C.F.R. § 1.98(a).

It is exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act and may be made public only in an administrative or judicial proceeding, or disclosed to Congress or to a duly authorized committee or subcommittee of Congress.

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act, as amended, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. That number is 3084-0005, which also appears above.

Privacy Act Statement—Section 18a(a) of Title 15 of the U.S. Code authorizes the collection of this information. The primary use of information submitted on this Form is to determine whether the reported merger or acquisition may violate the antitrust laws. Taxpayer information is collected, used, and may be shared with other agencies and contractors for payment processing, debt collection and reporting purposes. Furnishing the information on the Form is voluntary. Consummation of an acquisition required to be reported by the statute cited above without having provided this information may, however, render a person liable to civil penalties up to the amount listed in 16 C.F.R. § 1.98(a) per day. We also may be unable to process the Form unless you provide all of the requested information.

This page may be omitted when submitting the Form.

Dollar Values

All financial information should be expressed in millions of dollars rounded to the nearest hundred thousand.

Fee Information

The filing fee is based on the aggregate total value of assets, voting securities, and controlling non-corporate interests to be held as a result of the acquisition. Filing fee tiers are adjusted annually pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 18a note, based on the change in gross national product, in accordance with 15 U.S.C. § 19(a)(5). Filing fees increase annually by the percentage increase, if any, in the consumer price index ("CPI") over the CPI for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2022, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 18a note. For current fee information, see the PNO website.

North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Data

When reporting information by 6-digit NAICS code, refer to the North American Industry Classification System - United States, 2022, published by the Executive Office of the President, Office of Management and Budget, available at <https://www.census.gov/naics/>. This website also provides guidance in choosing the proper code(s).

Notification Thresholds

Notification thresholds are adjusted annually based on the change in gross national product, in accordance with 15 U.S.C. § 19(a)(5). See § 801.1(h). The current threshold values can be found at Current Thresholds.

Person Filing and Filing Person

The terms "person filing" or "filing person" mean the ultimate parent entity ("UPE"). See § 801.1(a)(3). The terms are used herein interchangeably.

Select 801.30 Transaction

A transaction to which § 801.30 applies and where (1) the acquisition would not confer control, (2) there is no agreement (or contemplated agreement) between any entity within the acquiring person and any entity within the acquired person governing any aspect of the transaction, and (3) the acquiring person does not have, and will not obtain, the right to serve as, appoint, veto, or approve board members, or members of any similar body, of any entity within the acquired person or the general partner or management company of any entity within the acquired person. Executive compensation transactions also qualify as select 801.30 transactions.

Supervisory Deal Team Lead

The individual who has primary responsibility for supervising the strategic assessment of the deal, and who would not otherwise qualify as a director or officer.

Target

The target includes all entities and assets to be acquired by the acquiring person from the acquired person in the reported transaction.

Year

All references to “year” refer to calendar year. If data are not available on a calendar year basis, supply the requested data for the fiscal year reporting period that most nearly corresponds to the calendar year specified. References to “most recent year” mean the most recently completed calendar or fiscal year for which the requested information is available.

► Filing

If the UPE is both an acquiring and acquired person, separate filings must be submitted, one as the acquiring person and one as the acquired person, following the appropriate instructions for each. See § 803.2(a)(2).

Filings should be submitted electronically consistent with the instructions on the PNO website. If the electronic submission platform is unavailable, the Agencies may announce sites for delivery through the media and, if possible, at the PNO website.

► Responses

Documents, including the Form, should be produced as (1) a searchable PDF from which text can be copied or (2) an Excel file.

For Business Documents (see below), check the box to indicate whether any part of the document is privileged and then provide the document number, title, and estimated date. If the acquiring person has identified (1) a NAICS overlap, (2) an overlap within the Overlap Description, or (3) a supply relationship within the Supply Relationships Description, also provide the following:

1. Author(s) (and job title(s)) for documents created by the acquiring person; or
2. Recipient(s) or supervisor(s) (and job title(s)) of documents created by third parties as part of an engagement with the acquiring person.

If a group of people prepared the document, list all the authors and their titles, identifying the principal authors. Alternatively, it is acceptable to indicate that the document was prepared under the supervision of the lead author and to provide the name and title of that author. Similarly, if the acquiring person engaged a third party to prepare a document, provide the name of the third party, and the name, title, and company name for the individual within the acquiring person who supervised the creation of the document, or for whom the document was prepared. For materials received from a third party that was not engaged by the acquiring person, only the name of the third party is required.

If the acquiring person submits documents in addition to what is required, such documents should be identified as “Voluntary”. See § 803.1(b).

Submit only one copy of identical responsive documents.

► Privilege

See § 803.3(d). For privileged documents, the filing person must also provide the following in a log:

1. The privilege type (redacted or withheld);
2. The privilege claim;
3. Addressee(s) and all recipients, with company name and title, of the original and any copies;
4. Subject matter;
5. Document’s present location; and
6. Who has control over it.

If a privileged document was circulated to a group, such as the board or an investment committee, the name of the group is sufficient, but the filing person should be prepared to disclose the names and titles/positions of the individual group members, if requested.

If the claim of privilege is based on advice from inside and/or outside counsel, the name of the inside and/or outside counsel providing the advice (and the law firm, if applicable) must be provided. If several lawyers participated in providing advice, identifying lead counsel is sufficient. In identifying who controls a document, the name of the law firm is sufficient.

► Translations

Materials or information in a language other than English must be translated into English, with the English translation attached to the original version. See § 803.8.

► Non-Compliance

If unable to answer any item fully, provide such information as is available and a statement of reasons for non-compliance as required by § 803.3. If exact answers to any item cannot be given, enter best estimates and indicate the source or basis of such estimates. Add an endnote with the notation “est.” to any item where data are estimated.

► Limited Response

Information need not be supplied regarding assets, voting securities, or non-corporate interests currently being acquired when their acquisition is exempt under the Act or Rules. See § 803.2(c).

FEE INFORMATION

Total Expected Filing Fee

Indicate the value of the total required fee for the transaction.

Parties Paying the Fee

Indicate which filing person(s) is paying the filing fee and, if applicable, whether the fee is being paid by multiple entities. For each entity within the acquiring person paying a portion of the fee, provide the name of the payer, the amount paid, the payment method, and the Electronic Wire Transfer (EWT) confirmation number or check number.

Note on Paying by EWT

In order for the FTC to track payment, the payer must provide information required by the Fedwire Instructions to the financial institution initiating the EWT. A template of the Fedwire Instructions is available at the PNO website on the Filing Fee Information page.

Note on Paying by Check

The FTC strongly discourages check payments because handling a physical check will create a delay in processing the Form. However, if an EWT cannot be arranged, the FTC will accept a check, sent to Financial Operations. Cashiers' or certified checks are preferred. Make the check payable to the Federal Trade Commission and deliver to:

Federal Trade Commission
Financial Operations Division
600 Pennsylvania Ave, Drop H-790
Washington, DC 20580

Please note that the waiting period may be delayed until the fee has been confirmed.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Special Filing Types

Indicate whether the filing is a post-consummation filing, or whether the transaction is a cash tender offer or bankruptcy that is subject to Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 363).

Early Termination

Indicate whether the acquiring person requests early termination of the waiting period. Notification of each grant of early termination will be published in the Federal Register, as required by 15 U.S.C. § 18a(b)(2), and on the PNO website. Note that if either person in any transaction requests early termination, it may be granted and published.

ULTIMATE PARENT ENTITY (UPE) INFORMATION

► UPE Details

Name

Provide the name, headquarters address, and website (if one exists) of the person filing notification. The name of the person filing is the name of the UPE of the acquiring person. See § 801.1(a)(3).

Entity Type

Specify whether the UPE is a corporation, unincorporated entity, natural person, or other entity type (specify). See § 801.1.

Filing Made on Behalf of the UPE

If the filing is being made on behalf of the UPE by another entity within the acquiring person authorized by the UPE to file the notification on its behalf pursuant to § 803.2(a) or filed pursuant to § 803.4 on behalf of a foreign person, provide the name and mailing address of the entity filing the notification on behalf of the UPE.

Provide the name, firm/company name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of two individuals (primary and secondary) to contact regarding the filing. See § 803.20(b)(2)(ii).

Additionally, provide the name, firm/company name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of an individual located in the United States designated for the limited purpose of receiving notice of the issuance of a request for additional information or documentary material. See § 803.20(b)(2).

UPE Annual Reports and Financial Information

- Central Index Key

If the UPE of the acquiring person files annual reports (Form 10-K or Form 20-F) with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), provide the Central Index Key (CIK) number.

- Annual Reports and Audit Reports

Provide the most recent annual reports and/or annual audit reports (or, if audited is unavailable, unaudited) of the UPE of the acquiring person.

Natural person UPEs should not provide personal balance sheets or tax returns. Natural person UPEs should leave this section blank and instead provide the most recent reports for the highest-level entity(ies) that controls the acquiring entity under "UPE Structure."

The person filing notification may incorporate a document responsive to this item by reference to an internet address directly linking to the document. See § 803.2(e).

- Date of Report(s)

Provide the date of the most recent annual report(s) and/or audit reports (or, if audited is unavailable, unaudited) of the UPE of the acquiring person.

- Size of Person

If applicable, indicate whether the person filing notification stipulates that the acquiring person meets either the higher or lower size of person test. See 15 U.S.C. § 18a(a), § 801.11.

Minority Shareholders or Interest Holders

This section requires the acquiring person to report the name, headquarters mailing address, and approximate percentage held by certain minority holders of (1) the acquiring entity, (2) any entity directly or indirectly controlled by the acquiring entity, (3) any entity that directly or indirectly controls the acquiring entity, and (4) any entity within the acquiring person that has been or will be created in contemplation of, or for the purposes of, effectuating the transaction (each a "covered entity").

If a covered entity is not a limited partnership, provide the required information for each individual or entity that currently holds, or will hold as a result of the transaction, 5% or more but less than 50% of the voting securities or non-corporate interests of any covered entity, starting with the UPE.

If a covered entity is a limited partnership, provide the required information for its (a) general partner, regardless of the percentage it holds, and (b) limited partners that (i) currently hold, or will hold as a result of the transaction, 5% or more but less than 50% of the non-corporate interests of the covered entity, and (ii) have or will have the right to serve as, nominate, appoint, veto, or approve board members, or individuals with similar responsibilities, of any covered entity, or of the general partner or management company of a covered entity.

If a minority holder is related to a master limited partnership, fund, investment group, or similar entity that does business under a common name, the d/b/a or "street name" of such group should also be listed, if known to the acquiring person.

If the identity of minority investors or percentages to be held of a covered entity is not finalized at the time of filing, provide good faith estimates and explain in an endnote.

► Acquiring Person Structure

Entities Within the Acquiring Person

List the name, city, state, zip code, and country of all U.S. entities, and all foreign entities that have sales in or into the United States, that are included within the acquiring person. Entities with total assets of less than $10 million may be omitted. Alternatively, the acquiring person may report all entities within it. The acquiring person must also list all names under which the entities do business (e.g., d/b/a names).

The list of entities should be organized by operating company or operating business ("top-level entity"), if applicable. Filings for select 801.30 transactions need not include d/b/a names and the list of entities can be organized as kept in the ordinary course of business.

Annual Reports and Audit Reports

For the acquiring entity(ies) and any entity controlled by the acquiring person whose revenues contribute to a NAICS overlap or any overlap identified in the Overlap Description, provide the CIK number(s) if annual reports (Form 10-K or Form 20-F) are filed with the SEC, and the most recent annual or audit report(s).

Natural person UPEs must also provide the most recent annual report or audit report and CIK number for the highest-level entity that controls the acquiring entity.

► Additional Acquiring Person Information

Ownership Structure

Describe the ownership structure of the acquiring entity.

For transactions where a fund or master limited partnership is the UPE, provide any existing organizational chart that shows the relationship of any entities that are affiliates or associates. If such an organizational chart does not exist, there is no requirement to create one.

Officers and Directors

For all entities within the acquiring person responsible for the development, marketing, or sale of products or services that are identified as overlaps within the Overlap Description or as supply relationships within the Supply Relationships Description:

- List all current officers and directors (or in the case of unincorporated entities, individuals exercising similar functions) and those who have served in one of these positions within the three months before filing that also serve as an officer or director of another entity that derives revenue in the same NAICS codes reported by the target. For each, provide the name of all such entities. If NAICS codes are unavailable, list all such entities that have operations in the same industry, based on the knowledge or belief of the acquiring person or the identified individual.

For the acquiring entity, entities the acquiring entity directly or indirectly controls, entities that directly or indirectly control the acquiring entity, and entities within the acquiring person that have been or will be created as a result of or as contemplated by the transaction:

- List all current officers and directors (or in the case of unincorporated entities, individuals exercising similar functions) as well as those who are likely to serve in one of these positions that also serve as an officer or director of another entity that derives revenue in the same NAICS codes reported by the target. For each, provide the name of all such entities. If NAICS codes are unavailable, list all such entities that have operations in the same industry, based on the knowledge or belief of the acquiring person or the identified individual. If the identities of the prospective officers or directors are unknown, briefly describe in an endnote who will have the authority to select them.

No filer is required to disclose any individual's role as an officer, director, or member of any non-profit entity organized for a religious or political purpose, even if that entity carries on substantial commerce. Organize the response by entity and include entities that are not yet created but are expected to be created as a result of or as contemplated by the transaction.

Target(s)

If the assets, voting securities, or non-corporate interests of an entity other than the acquired UPE are being acquired, provide the name, mailing address, and website of that entity.

Indicate whether the transaction is subject to § 801.30 and if so, what type(s), including select 801.30.

Transaction Type

Indicate whether the transaction is any of the following (select all that apply):

- Acquisition of voting securities;
- Acquisition of non-corporate interests;
- Acquisition of assets;

- Acquisition subject to § 801.2(e); or
- Other (specify)

Acquisition Details

Provide the requested information for the value and percentage of assets, voting securities, and non-corporate interests to be acquired. If a combination of assets, voting securities, and/or non-corporate interests is being acquired and allocation is not possible, note such information in an endnote.

For determining the percentage of voting securities, evaluate total voting power per § 801.12. For determining the percentage of non-corporate interests, evaluate the economic interests per § 801.1(b)(1)(ii).

To complete this item:

- State the percentage of voting securities already held by the acquiring person. See § 801.12.
- State the value of voting securities already held by the acquiring person. See § 801.10.
- State the total percentage of voting securities to be held by the acquiring person as a result of the acquisition. See § 801.12.
- State the total value of voting securities to be held by the acquiring person as a result of the acquisition. See § 801.10.

- State the aggregate total value of assets, voting securities, and non-corporate interests of the acquired person to be held by the acquiring person as a result of the acquisition. See §§ 801.10, 801.12, 801.13 and 801.14.

Notification Threshold

This item should only be completed when voting securities are being acquired. If more than voting securities are being acquired, respond to this item only regarding voting securities. Indicate the highest applicable threshold for which notification is being filed. See § 801.1(h).

- $50 million (as adjusted);
- $100 million (as adjusted);
- $500 million (as adjusted);
- 25% (if the value of voting securities to be held is greater than $1 billion, as adjusted);
- 50%; or
- N/A.

Note that the 50% notification threshold is the highest threshold and should be used for any acquisition of 50% or more of the voting securities of an issuer, regardless of the value of the voting securities. For instance, an acquisition of 100% of the voting securities of an issuer valued in excess of $500 million (as adjusted) would cross the 50% notification threshold, not the $500 million (as adjusted) threshold.

Note that transactions subject to § 801.30 and bankruptcies under 11 U.S.C. § 363(b) do not require an executed agreement. For bankruptcies, provide the order from the bankruptcy court.

► Overlap Description

Briefly describe each of the principal categories of products and services (as reflected in documents created in the ordinary course of business) of the acquiring person.

In addition, list and briefly describe each of the current or known planned products or services of the acquiring person that competes with (or could compete with) a current or known planned product or service of the target, based on documents created in the ordinary course of business. Current or known planned products or services include those that the acquiring person or target researches, develops, manufactures, produces, sells, offers, provides, supplies, or distributes. Known planned products or services may be limited to those referenced in any submitted Business Document and should reflect the acquiring person's existing knowledge of the target's business. The acquiring and acquired person should not exchange information for the purpose of answering this item.

For each such product or service listed, provide:

1. The sales (in dollars) for the most recent year. For those products or services not generating revenue or whose performance is not measured by revenue in the ordinary course of business, provide projected revenue, estimates of the volume of products to be sold, time spent using the service, or any other metric by which the acquiring person measures performance (e.g., daily users, new signups).
2. A description of all categories of customers of the acquiring person that purchase or use the product or service (e.g., retailer, distributor, broker, government, military, educational, national account, local account, commercial, residential, or institutional). If no customers have yet used the product or service, provide the date that development of the product or service began; a description of the current stage in development, including any testing and regulatory approvals and any planned improvements or modifications; the date that development (including testing and regulatory approvals) was or will be completed; and the date that the product or service is expected to be sold or otherwise commercially launched.
3. The top 10 customers in the most recent year (as measured in dollars), and the top 10 customers for each customer category identified.

► Supply Relationships Description

Related Sales

List and briefly describe each product, service, or asset (including data) that the acquiring person has sold, licensed, or otherwise supplied, and which represented at least $10 million in revenue (including internal transfers) in the most recent year (1) to the target, or (2) to any other business that, to the acquiring person's knowledge or belief, uses the acquiring person's product, service, or asset to compete with the target's products or services, or as an input for a product or service that competes or is intended to compete with the target's products or services. Responses to this item should reflect the acquiring person's existing knowledge of the target's business; the acquiring and acquired person should not exchange information for the purpose of answering this item.

For each product, service, or asset listed, for the most recent year, provide:

1. The sales (in dollars) to (1) the target and (2) any other business that, to the acquiring person's knowledge or belief, uses the acquiring person's product, service, or asset to compete with the target's products or services, or as an input for a product or service that competes or is intended to compete with the target's products or services.
2. The top 10 customers (as measured in dollars) of the acquiring person that use the acquiring person's product, service, or asset to compete with the target's products or services, or as an input for a product or service that competes or is intended to compete with the target's products or services. For each such customer, describe the acquiring person's supply or licensing agreement (or other comparable terms of supply).

Related Purchases

List and briefly describe each product, service, or asset (including data) that the acquiring person incorporates as an input into any product or service and that the acquiring person has purchased, licensed, or otherwise obtained, and which represented at least $10 million in revenue (including internal transfers), in the most recent year (1) from the target or (2) from any other business that, to the acquiring person's knowledge or belief, competes with the target to provide a substantially similar product, service, or asset. Responses to this item should reflect the acquired person's existing knowledge of the acquiring person's business; the acquiring and acquired person should not exchange information for the purpose of answering this item.

For each product, service, or asset listed, for the most recent year, provide:

1. The purchased amount (in dollars) for (1) the target and (2) any other business that, to the acquiring person's knowledge or belief, competes with the target to provide a substantially similar product, service, or asset.
2. The top 10 suppliers (as measured in dollars) for the associated input product, service, or asset, and a description of the acquiring person's purchase or licensing agreement (or other comparable terms of purchase).

REVENUES AND OVERLAPS

► NAICS Codes

This item requests information regarding the industry categories for the acquiring person's products and services that derived revenue in the most recent year.

No Revenue

If there is no revenue to report, explain why.

NAICS Codes Describing U.S. Operations with Estimates of Revenue

Identify all 6-digit NAICS industry codes that describe the U.S. operations of the acquiring person, inclusive of all entities included within the acquiring person at the time the filing is made.

Responses must be organized by NAICS code in ascending order. For each code, provide the name of the operating business(es) that derive(s) revenue in that code and the estimated revenue range: less than $10 million; $10 million or more but less than $100 million; $100 million or more but less than $1 billion; or $1 billion or more.

Identify each 6-digit NAICS industry code in which both the acquiring person and target derive revenue by checking the overlap box.

For products and services that derived revenue in the most recent year in a non-manufacturing NAICS code, if the revenue is estimated at less than one million dollars, that code may be omitted so long as the code does not overlap with a code in which the target derived revenue from U.S. operations.

► Controlled Entity Geographic Overlaps

If, to the knowledge or belief of the person filing notification, the acquiring person, or any associate of the acquiring person (see § 801.1(d)(2)), derived any amount of dollar revenues in the most recent year from operations:

1. In industries within any 6-digit NAICS industry code in which the target also derived any amount of dollar revenues in the most recent year; or
2. In which a joint venture corporation or unincorporated entity will derive dollar revenues;

then for each such 6-digit NAICS industry code follow the instructions below for this section.

Note that if the target is a joint venture, the only overlaps that should be reported are those between the assets to be held by the joint venture and any assets of the acquiring person or its associates not contributed to the joint venture.

NAICS Overlaps of Controlled Entities

List each overlapping NAICS code and description. For each, list the name of each operating business within the acquiring person or associate of the acquiring person that has U.S. operations in the same NAICS code as the target and the name(s) under which the operating business does business, whether the listed entity is controlled by the acquiring person or an associate of the acquiring person, and provide the appropriate Geographic Market Information, based upon the NAICS code. Organize responses by NAICS code in ascending order.

Geographic Market Information

For each identified overlapping NAICS code, provide geographic information, as described below. Use the 2-digit postal codes for states and territories and provide the total number of states and territories at the end of the response.

Except in the case of those NAICS industries in the sectors, subsectors, and codes that require street-address level reporting, the person filing notification may respond with the word "national" if business is conducted in all 50 states.

► Minority-Held Entity Overlaps

This section requires the disclosure of holdings of the acquiring person and its associates (see § 801.1(d)(2)) of 5% or more but less than 50% of certain entities that derive dollar revenues in any 6-digit NAICS code reported by the target. If NAICS codes are unavailable, holdings in entities that have operations in the same industry as the target, based on the knowledge or belief of the filing person, should be listed. Holdings in those entities that have total assets of less than $10 million may be omitted.

Minority Holdings of Acquiring Person and Its Associates

If the acquiring person holds 5% or more but less than 50% of the voting securities of any issuer or non-corporate interests of any unincorporated entity that derived dollar revenues in the most recent year from operations in industries within any 6-digit NAICS code(s) reported by the target, list the name of such entity and d/b/a names (if known), the percentage held, the entity within the acquiring person that holds the minority interests, and the overlapping 6-digit NAICS code(s) or industry(ies).

Additionally, based on the knowledge or belief of the acquiring person, for each associate of the acquiring person holding:

1. 5% or more but less than 50% of the voting securities or non-corporate interests of an acquired entity; and/or
2. 5% or more but less than 50% of the voting securities of any issuer or non-corporate interests of any unincorporated entity that derived dollar revenues in the most recent year from operations in industries within any 6-digit NAICS industry code in which the target also derived dollar revenues in the most recent year, list the name of such entity and d/b/a names (if known), percentage held, the associate of the acquiring person that holds the minority interests, and the overlapping 6-digit NAICS code(s) or industry(ies).

Responses should be organized alphabetically by the name of the entity in which minority interests are held.

The acquiring person may rely on its regularly prepared financials that list its investments, and those of its associates that list their investments, provided the financials are no more than three months old.

► Prior Acquisitions

This item pertains only to prior acquisitions of U.S. entities or assets and foreign entities or assets with sales in or into the U.S. by the acquiring person that in the most recent year (1) derived revenue in an identified 6-digit NAICS industry code overlap, or (2) provided or produced a competitive overlap product or service as described in the Overlap Description.

For each such overlap, list all acquisitions of entities or assets deriving dollar revenues in an overlapping 6-digit NAICS industry code or overlapping product or service made by the acquiring person in the five years prior to the date of the instant filing, even if the transaction was non-reportable. List only acquisitions of 50% or more of the voting securities of an issuer, 50% or more of non-corporate interests of an unincorporated entity, or all or substantially all the assets of an operating business if the entity or business had annual net sales or total assets greater than $10 million in the year prior to the acquisition and any acquisitions of assets that did not constitute all or substantially all of an operating business valued at or above the statutory size-of-transaction test at the time of their acquisition.

For each such acquisition, supply:

1. the overlapping 6-digit NAICS code(s) (by number and description) identified above in which the acquired entity or assets derived dollar revenues, or the competitive overlap product(s) or service(s) in the Overlap Description;
2. the name of the entity from which the assets, voting securities, or non-corporate interests were acquired;
3. the headquarters address of that entity prior to the acquisition;
4. whether assets, voting securities, or non-corporate interests were acquired; and
5. the consummation date of the acquisition.

PREMERGER NOTIFICATION REPORTING UNDER THE HSR ACT

Prior to the 2024 revisions to the HSR Form, filing parties were required to submit certain business documents under Items 4(c) and 4(d). Although the revised 2024 form mandates a broader set of document submissions, the framework and agency practices developed under the previous version remain central to understanding how the agencies assess internal documents relating to competition and deal rationale—and how they respond when responsive documents are omitted and later discovered during the review process.

ITEMS 4(c) AND 4(d) OF THE 2023 HSR FORM

Item 4(c) and 4(d) documents

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (“HSR Act”), parties submitting premerger notification reports are required to submit so-called “4(c) documents” in response to Item 4(c) of the HSR Form. Item 4(c) requires the filing party to include the following materials with its initial premerger notification filing:

[Any] studies, surveys, analyses and reports prepared by or for an officer or director for the purpose of analyzing the proposed transaction with respect to market shares, competition, competitors, markets, potential for sales growth or expansion into product or geographic markets.

The documents submitted under this section can include offering memoranda or analyses prepared by investment bankers, capital authorization requests, board memoranda and slide presentations, and other internal analyses,

In addition, effective as of August 18, 2011, the HSR form added a new Item 4(d) requiring reporting parties to submit three other classes of documents:

- Confidential Information Memoranda (“CIM”): Item 4(d)(i) requires a filing party to submit any CIM prepared by or for any officers or directors that specifically relate to the sale of the target. If no CIM exists, the parties have to submit any documents given to officers or directors of the buyer meant to serve the function of a CIM. Only documents prepared within a year of the HSR filing date must be submitted.
- Third-party advisor documents: Item 4(d)(ii) requires a filing party to submit all studies, surveys, analyses, and reports prepared by investment bankers, consultants, or other third-party advisors for any of its officers or directors for the purpose of evaluating or analyzing market shares, competition, competitors, markets, potential for sales growth or expansion into product or geographic markets that specifically relate to the sale of the target. Only materials developed by third-party advisors during an engagement or for the purpose of seeking an engagement, including unsolicited materials, are required.

- Synergy and efficiency documents: Item 4(d)(iii) requires a filing party to submit all studies, surveys, analyses, and reports evaluating or analyzing synergies and/or efficiencies prepared by or for any officers or directors for the purpose of evaluating or analyzing the acquisition. Financial models without stated assumptions need not be provided in response to this item.

Although many parties were already submitting these types of documents under Item 4(c), the FTC introduced Item 4(d) to ensure consistency and eliminate uncertainty in the types of documents required to be submitted with the original HSR filing.

The content of 4(c) and 4(d) documents can be instrumental in determining whether the U.S. antitrust agencies decide to conduct an in-depth investigation of a transaction, issue a second request for information, or seek to block or restructure a transaction.

Relevance of Item 4(c) and 4(d) documents to the agency review

The content of 4(c) and 4(d) documents can be instrumental in determining whether the U.S. antitrust agencies decide to conduct an in-depth investigation of a transaction, issue a second request for information, or seek to block or restructure a transaction. From the reviewing agency's perspective, it is especially important to obtain documents that support a possible theory of anticompetitive harm.

The following is a non-exhaustive list of topics that are likely to attract the attention of the antitrust agencies and to subject a transaction to closer regulatory scrutiny:

- Price effects: Documents suggesting that the price of some product will increase as a result of the transaction.
- Market characterization: Characterizing the market in which the firms compete (since such comments may be misread to endorse a particular view of the market that overstates the competitive impact of a transaction).
- Competitive impact: Exaggerated claims about the extent to which the transaction will enhance the competitive position of the parties or disadvantage competitors.
- Strength of rivals: Comments minimizing the strength of competitors, including smaller competitors or potential new competitors.
- Closeness of competition: Referring to the acquisition target as the closest competitor or suggesting that there are market segments or niches in which the purchaser and the target are uniquely strong and do not face significant competition from others.
- Barriers to entry: Suggestions that there are high barriers to entry or expansion in the market.

- Facilitation of coordination: Suggestions that following the transaction it will be easier for the parties or anyone else to raise prices or reduce any non-price aspect of competition.
- Customer impact: Suggestions that customers will be harmed or concerned about lack of competition as a result of the transaction.
- Efficiencies: Suggestions that few synergies, efficiencies, or other cost-savings will be achieved as a result of the transaction.
- Innovation disincentives: Suggestions that the transaction will lessen the pressure on either of the parties to innovate or make quality or other improvements.

Consequences of failing to include all Item 4(c) and 4(d) documents

The agencies consider a filing that does not contain all 4(c) documents to be incomplete and ineffective. When the agencies discover a 4(c) document in a second request submission that was missing from the original premerger filing, the agencies frequently require the filing party to refile its premerger notification, restart all of the waiting periods, and subject all parties to another (or second) second request and substantial delay. The deficient company can also lose significant credibility and leverage at what is usually the worst possible time in the investigation. The agencies almost certainly will take the same stringent view on failing to comply with Item 4(d).

Moreover, if the waiting period for the filing putatively expired and the missing documents emerge after the transaction closed, the agency can seek civil penalties for consummating the transaction without an effective HSR filing. Civil penalties accrue for each day after a transaction has closed where the HSR Act's reporting and waiting requirements were not observed. In 2025, the maximum civil penalty for violating the HSR Act is $ 53,088 per day.¹

ADP/AutoInfo: In ADP/AutoInfo,² ADP submitted an HSR filing on December 7, 1994, for the acquisition of AutoInfo. ADP's HSR filing contained no 4(c) documents. No second request was issued, and the transaction closed on April 1, 1995. Following the closing, however, a number of customers complained about price increases, leading the FTC to open a non-HSR post-closing investigation into the transaction. In the course of the new investigation, the FTC discovered a number of Item 4(c) documents that were missing from ADP's original filing. One of these documents was a marketing plan that explained how the acquisition would enable ADP to "monopolize the [automobile] salvage [yard information services] industry in an expeditious and timely manner." The FTC concluded that the missing documents made ADP's original filing ineffective and hence the transaction violated the HSR Act because it closed without

No. 114-74, § 701, 129 Stat. 599 (2015), requires federal agencies to adjust the level of civil monetary penalties for inflation annually, based on the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U).

satisfying the Act's reporting and waiting period requirements. In its complaint seeking civil penalties, the government alleged that ADP made little effort to locate its Item 4(c) documents for inclusion in the filing for the AutoInfo transaction and that it did not search or have searched the files of either its officers or directors or those persons who may have generated documents responsive to Item 4(c) for the officers or directors. ADP's in-house counsel, who had prepared the Notification and Report Form and was responsible for collecting 4(c) documents, at most asked only three persons whether they had documents like those covered by Item 4(c). Those persons did not search or have their files searched for Item 4(c) documents and did not produce 4(c) documents. ADP's in-house counsel was unaware of whether and what potentially responsive 4(c) documents were typically created by or for ADP officers during an ADP acquisition. In addition, ADP's Chief Financial Officer, who certified the accuracy and completeness of the Notification and Report Form, did not supervise the preparation of the Notification and Report Form or review the completed Notification and Report Form, did not know what documents were required by Item 4(c), did not read the instructions to the Notification and Report Form, and had no understanding of the statute or rules referred to in the certification. The complaint alleged that ADP was in violation of the HSR from April 1, 1995, the date of the AutoInfo acquisition, to January 23, 1996, when ADP refiled its HSR form. At the time, the maximum penalty for violating the HSR Act was $10,000 per day for each day the company was in violation. This period comprised 297 calendar days, which would subject ADP to a maximum penalty of $2,970,000. The FTC obtained this maximum penalty in settlement.³

Blackstone/Lipson:⁴ Blackstone Capital Partners II Merchant Banking Fund L.P. and its general partner, Howard A. Lipson, settled an FTC investigation into violations of the HSR Act after the FTC discovered that a filing made by Blackstone and signed by Lipson in 1996 for Blackstone's involvement in the leveraged buyout of Prime Succession, Inc. did not include an important 4(c) document. The omission was discovered when a subsequent filing in 1997 by another party involved in the LBO included a memorandum authored by Lipson describing competitive issues in the 1996 transaction. This was the first time the agencies sought to impose penalties against an individual. Given Lipson's personal involvement in the Prime transaction and the fact that he authored the Item 4(c) document in question, the agencies concluded that he knew or should have known that the filing was inaccurate when he signed it, and at the least had had "reckless disregard" for his obligations under the HSR Act. Blackstone paid a penalty of $2,785,000 and Lipson paid $50,000 in the settlement.

Hearst Trust/Medi-Span:⁵ Hearst Corporation settled charges of making an incomplete HSR filing for its 1998 acquisition of Medi-Span. As in the ADP case, in the wake of postmerger customer complaints, the FTC opened an investigation of the transaction. In the course of the investigation, Hearst submitted three documents the FTC concluded were responsive to Item 4(c) at the time of the original filing but were not submitted with the notification. On August 21, 2000, Hearst resubmitted its HSR Notification with the missing Item 4(c) documents, along with a privilege log identifying six other documents that had not been identified in the original filing. The waiting period for the resubmitted filing apparently expired on November 22, 2000. To settle the resulting civil penalties action, Hearst agreed to pay $4 million, the largest penalty to date by a single company for violations of the premerger notification rules.⁶

⁴ United States v. Blackstone Capital Partners II Merchant Banking Fund L.P. & Howard Andrew Lipson, 99-CV-0795 R, 1999 WL 34814751 (D.D.C. Mar. 31, 1999).

Iconix/Rocawear:⁷ Iconix Brand Group agreed to a $550,000 fine to settle charges of making an incomplete filing in for its acquisition of Rocawear Brand. Iconix failed to submit any Item 4(c) documents with its filing, prompting the FTC to call the company's counsel to confirm that a thorough search was made. Although the agencies did not have any substantive antitrust concerns with the transaction and granted early termination of the HSR waiting period, the DOJ opened an investigation to determine whether Iconix had really undertaken an acquisition requiring more than $200 million in financing without its officers or directors having prepared or reviewed a single Item 4(c) document. In response to the DOJ's Civil Investigatory Demand, Iconix produced several documents, including an email between its officers and directors, a presentation reviewed by an Executive Vice President and materials prepared for an Iconix board, all of which evaluated and analyzed Iconix's proposed acquisition with respect to market shares, competition, competitors, markets, and potential for sales growth or expansion into product or geographic markets. The case underscores that even when the agencies have no substantive competition concerns, they continue to seek penalties when a filing party fails to identify and submit required internal documents.

⁶ Also as in the ADP case, the FTC challenged the transaction on the merits and obtained a consent settlement requiring Hearst to divest the former Medi-Span business and to pay $19 million as disgorgement of unlawful profits. See FTC v. Hearst Trust, No. 1:01CV00734 (TPJ) (D.D.C. Dec. 18, 2001) (consent decree).

Dear [COUNSEL]:

The Antitrust Division is requesting voluntary information from [Party] (“the company”) regarding the proposed merger between [Party A] and [Party B] (the “transaction”). This request is not to be construed as a “request for additional information or documentary materials” under the Hart–Scott–Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act (“HSR”).

You should be prepared to submit this key information within a few days of receipt of this letter. The earlier the Division receives this information, the sooner and more effectively the Division can determine whether a competitive concern exists, whether the Division can narrow the areas of inquiry, or whether the investigation can be closed.

Unless specifically noted otherwise, this letter seeks information relating only to products or services sold, purchased, or used in the United States. Where the specification calls for data, please provide the data in an electronic form that is both searchable and sortable, such as an Excel spreadsheet.

Attachments to a document should be identified as such and entered separately on the log. For each author, addressee, and recipient, state the Person's full name, title, and employer or firm, and denote all attorneys with an asterisk. The description of the subject matter shall describe the nature of each document in a manner that, though not revealing information itself privileged, provides sufficiently detailed information to enable Commission staff, the Commission, or a court to assess the applicability of the privilege claimed. For each document or part of a document withheld under a claim that it constitutes or contains attorney work product, also state whether the Company asserts that the document was prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial and, if so, identify the anticipated litigation or trial upon which the assertion is based. Submit all non-privileged portions of any responsive document (including non-privileged or redactable attachments) for which a claim of privilege is asserted (except where the only non-privileged information has already been produced in response to this Instruction), noting where redactions in the document have been made. Documents authored by outside lawyers representing the Company that were not directly or indirectly furnished to the Company or any third party, such as internal law firm memoranda, may be omitted from the log. Provide the log in Microsoft Excel readable format.
- I 8. If the Company is unable to answer any question fully, supply such information and data as are available. Explain why the answer is incomplete, the efforts made by the Company to obtain the information and data, and the source from which the complete answer may be obtained. FLAKEBOARD ABANDONS ITS PROPOSED ACQUISITION OF SIERRAPINE

Decision to Abandon Deal Preserves Competition in the MDF Industry

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Flakeboard America Ltd. abandoned its plan to acquire one medium-density fiberboard (MDF) and two particleboard mills from SierraPine, after the Department of Justice expressed concerns about the transaction's likely anticompetitive effects in MDF. The department said that the transaction likely would have substantially lessened competition in the market for the production of MDF sold to customers in the West Coast states of California, Oregon, and Washington.

MDF is a manufactured wood product widely used in furniture, kitchen cabinets, and decorative mouldings. An increase in the price of MDF would likely result in significant harm to MDF consumers on the West Coast, the department said.

"This deal threatened to weaken competition and raise MDF prices for customers on the West Coast," said Bill Baer, Assistant Attorney General of the Department of Justice's Antitrust Division. "The companies' decision to abandon the deal is a victory for consumers, who will continue to enjoy the benefits of MDF competition between Flakeboard and SierraPine."

Flakeboard and SierraPine are two of only four significant suppliers of MDF to the West Coast. Both companies operate MDF mills in Oregon—Flakeboard in Eugene; SierraPine in Medford—and the nearest competing mill is several hundred miles away. For many customers, Flakeboard and SierraPine are the two closest sellers of MDF. The proposed merger would have given the combined firm a 58 percent market share for the thicker and denser grades of MDF that Flakeboard and SierraPine sell on the West Coast.

According to the department, the acquisition would have eliminated significant head-to-head competition between Flakeboard and SierraPine. In addition, by gaining control over SierraPine's MDF mill, the department said that Flakeboard would have been in a better position to raise prices by restricting the amount of MDF available to the West Coast. The acquisition also would have enhanced the risk of coordination between Flakeboard and its few remaining rivals on output and prices, the department said.

Flakeboard is a Delaware corporation headquartered in Ontario, Canada. Flakeboard's parent company is Celulosa Arauco y Constitución (Arauco), which is held by Inversiones Angelini y Compañía Limitada, a Chilean corporation headquartered in Santiago, Chile. In 2013, Flakeboard's annual revenues from its MDF business were approximately $380 million. SierraPine is a California limited partnership headquartered in Roseville, California. In 2013, SierraPine's annual revenues from its MDF business were approximately $70 million.

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT REACHES $5 MILLION SETTLEMENT WITH FLAKEBOARD, ARAUCO, INVERSIONES ANGELINI AND SIERRAPINE FOR ILLEGAL PREMERGER COORDINATION

Department Obtains Civil Penalties of $3.8 Million and Disgorgement of $1.15 Million

WASHINGTON —The department today announced a settlement with Flakeboard America Limited; its parent companies, Celulosa Arauco y Constitución S.A. and Inversiones Angelini y Compañía Limitada; and SierraPine. The settlement requires the companies to pay a combined $3.8 million in civil penalties for violating the Hart–Scott–Rodino (HSR) Act of 1976. In addition, for violating Section 1 of the Sherman Act, Flakeboard must disgorge $1.15 million in illegally obtained profits and both Flakeboard and SierraPine must establish antitrust compliance programs and agree to certain restrictions.

The settlement resolves the department’s allegations that Flakeboard, Arauco and SierraPine engaged in illegal premerger coordination while Flakeboard’s proposed acquisition of three SierraPine mills was under antitrust review by the Department of Justice.

Flakeboard and SierraPine abandoned the proposed acquisition on Sept. 30, 2014, after the department expressed concerns about the transaction’s likely anticompetitive effects in the production of medium-density fiberboard (MDF). MDF is a manufactured wood product widely used in furniture, kitchen cabinets, and decorative mouldings.

The department today filed, in U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, a civil antitrust complaint alleging violations of the HSR Act (Section 7A of the Clayton Act) and Section 1 of the Sherman Act. At the same time, the department filed an agreement that, if approved by the court, would resolve the lawsuit.

“Companies proposing to merge must remain separate and independent during the government’s investigation,” said Bill Baer, Assistant Attorney General of the Department of Justice’s Antitrust Division. “These two competitors did not. Instead they closed a plant and allocated customers when they should have been competing vigorously. As a result both companies are paying substantial civil penalties and Flakeboard is being forced to surrender the ill-gotten profit it gained from violating the antitrust laws.”

According to the complaint, before the proposed acquisition, SierraPine operated particleboard mills in Springfield, Oregon, and Martell, California, that competed directly with Flakeboard’s particleboard mill in Albany, Oregon. Particleboard is an unfinished wood product that is widely used in countertops, shelving, low-end furniture, and other finished products. The Springfield and Martell mills were included in the proposed acquisition along with a third SierraPine mill that produced MDF. The complaint alleges that after announcing the proposed acquisition on Jan. 14, 2014, and before the expiration of the HSR Act's mandatory premerger waiting period, Flakeboard, Arauco, and SierraPine illegally coordinated to close SierraPine's particleboard mill in Springfield, Oregon, and move the mill's customers to Flakeboard. This unlawful coordination led to the permanent shutdown of the Springfield mill on March 13, 2014, and enabled Flakeboard to secure a significant number of Springfield's customers for its Albany mill. The defendants' conduct constituted an illegal agreement to restrain trade in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, and prematurely transferred operational control, and therefore beneficial ownership, of SierraPine's business to Flakeboard in violation of the HSR Act.

The HSR Act requires companies planning acquisitions or mergers that meet certain thresholds to file premerger notification documents with the department and the Federal Trade Commission. The HSR Act also requires that the merging parties observe a mandatory waiting period before proceeding with the transaction. If the government determines that a transaction violates the antitrust laws, it may seek to block that transaction before the waiting period expires. Each party is subject to a maximum civil penalty of $16,000 per day for each day they violate the HSR Act.

The complaint alleges that the defendants' HSR Act violation occurred from January 17, 2014, when Flakeboard and SierraPine began coordinating on the closure of the Springfield mill, until the expiration of the waiting period on Aug. 27, 2014. The companies cooperated with the investigation by voluntarily providing the department with evidence of their unlawful premerger conduct, which was a significant factor in the department's decision to reduce the maximum HSR penalty. The $1.15 million in disgorgement under the Sherman Act represents a reasonable approximation of the ill-gotten profit Flakeboard received as a result of the parties' coordination to close Springfield and move the mill's customers to Flakeboard.

Flakeboard is a Delaware corporation with its U.S. headquarters in Fort Mill, South Carolina. Flakeboard's parent company is Celulosa Arauco y Constitución (Arauco), which is held by Inversiones Angelini y Compañía Limitada, a Chilean corporation headquartered in Santiago, Chile, and the ultimate parent entity named on the HSR filing.

SierraPine is a California limited partnership headquartered in Roseville, California.

As required by the Tunney Act, the proposed settlement, along with the department's competitive impact statement, will be published in the Federal Register. Any person may submit written comments concerning the proposed settlement during a 60-day comment period to Peter Mucchetti, Chief, Litigation I Section, Antitrust Division, U.S. Department of Justice, 450 5th Street, N.W., Suite 4100, Washington, D.C. 20530. At the conclusion of the 60-day comment period, the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia may enter the proposed final judgment upon finding that it is in the public interest.

Attorneys for Plaintiff United States of America

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

FLAKEBOARD AMERICA LIMITED,

CELULOSA ARAUCO Y CONSTITUCIÓN,
S.A.,

INVERSIONES ANGELINI Y COMPAÑÍA
LIMITADA,

and

SIERRAPINE,

Defendants.

Case No. 3:14-cv-4949

COMPLAINT

The United States of America brings this civil antitrust action to challenge unlawful conduct by Flakeboard America Limited; its parent companies, Celulosa Arauco y Constitución, S.A., and Inversiones Angelini y Compañía Limitada; and SierraPine that occurred while the U.S. Department of Justice was reviewing Flakeboard's proposed acquisition of certain assets from SierraPine.

I. NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. On January 13, 2014, Flakeboard and SierraPine executed an asset purchase agreement in which Flakeboard agreed to acquire SierraPine's particleboard mills in Springfield, Oregon, and Martell, California, and a medium-density fiberboard (MDF) mill in Medford, Oregon. The total value of the proposed transaction was approximately $107 million, plus a variable amount for inventory.

2. SierraPine's Springfield and Martell particleboard mills competed directly with Flakeboard's particleboard mill in Albany, Oregon. Particleboard is an unfinished wood product that is widely used in countertops, shelving, low-end furniture, and other finished products. Both companies also compete in the sale of MDF, a higher-end wood product that is widely used in furniture, kitchen cabinets, and decorative mouldings.

3. The transaction exceeded thresholds established by Section 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a, also commonly known as the Hart–Scott–Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended ("Section 7A" or "HSR Act"). Consequently, the HSR Act required that the defendants make premerger notification filings with the Federal Trade Commission and Department of Justice and observe a waiting period before Flakeboard obtained beneficial ownership of SierraPine's business. The waiting period seeks to ensure that the parties to a proposed transaction are preserved as independent entities while the reviewing agency—here, the Department of Justice—investigates the transaction and determines whether to challenge it.

4. Instead of preserving SierraPine as an independent business, however, Flakeboard, Arauco, and SierraPine coordinated during the HSR waiting period to close SierraPine's Springfield mill and move the mill's customers to Flakeboard. The mill was permanently shut down on March 13, 2014, months before the HSR waiting period expired. On September 30, 2014, Flakeboard and SierraPine abandoned their proposed transaction in response to concerns expressed by the Department of Justice about the transaction's likely anticompetitive effects in the sale of MDF.

5. The defendants' coordination to close Springfield and move the mill's customers to Flakeboard constituted a per se unlawful agreement between competitors to reduce output and allocate customers in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, and prematurely transferred operational control of SierraPine's business to Flakeboard during the HSR waiting period in violation of Section 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a.

II. JURISDICTION, VENUE, AND INTERSTATE COMMERCE

6. The United States brings this action under Section 4 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 4, seeking relief for the violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, and under Section 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a, to recover civil penalties for the violation of the HSR Act. This Court has jurisdiction over this action and the defendants under Section 7A(g) of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a(g), 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1337(a), 1345, and 1355.

7. The defendants are engaged in, and their activities substantially affect, interstate commerce.

8. The defendants have stipulated to venue and personal jurisdiction in this District.

III. THE DEFENDANTS

9. Flakeboard America Limited is a Delaware corporation with its U.S. headquarters in Fort Mill, South Carolina. Flakeboard and its related entities own numerous mills in North America that produce particleboard and MDF, including a particleboard mill in Albany, Oregon.

10. Flakeboard's parent company is Celulosa Arauco y Constitución, S.A., a Chilean company headquartered in Santiago, Chile, that also produces particleboard and other products. Arauco oversees Flakeboard's operations in North America.

11. Inversiones Angelini y Compañía Limitada is a Chilean corporation headquartered in Santiago, Chile. Inversiones Angelini is a holding company and Flakeboard's ultimate parent entity, as defined by the Premerger Notification Rules, 16 C.F.R. § 800 et seq. Inversiones Angelini is also the ultimate parent entity of Arauco.

12. SierraPine is a California limited partnership with its headquarters in Roseville, California. SierraPine owns an operating particleboard mill in Martell, California; the closed particleboard mill in Springfield, Oregon; a closed particleboard mill in Adel, Georgia; and an operating MDF mill in Medford, Oregon.

IV. THE HSR ACT AND THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT

13. The HSR Act imposes notification and waiting-period requirements on certain transactions that result in an acquiring person holding assets or voting securities valued above certain thresholds. Section 801(c)(1) of the Premerger Notification Rules, 16 C.F.R. § 800 et seq., defines "hold" to mean to have "beneficial ownership." One way that an acquiring person may prematurely obtain beneficial ownership of assets or voting securities it plans to acquire is by obtaining operational control of the acquired person's business before the end of the HSR waiting period. This conduct, sometimes referred to as "gun jumping," violates Section 7A.

14. Section 7A(g)(1) of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a(g)(1), states that any person, or any officer, director, or partner thereof, who fails to comply with any provision of the HSR Act is liable to the United States for a civil penalty for each day during which the person is in violation. For the period relevant to the Complaint, the maximum civil penalty was $16,000 per defendant, per day, according to the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, Pub. L. 104-134, § 31001(s) (amending the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990, 28 U.S.C.

§ 2461 note), and Federal Trade Commission Rule 1.98, 16 C.F.R. § 1.98, 61 Fed. Reg. 54548 (Oct. 21, 1996).

15. Flakeboard's proposed acquisition of SierraPine's mills was subject to the HSR Act. On January 22, 2014, Flakeboard's ultimate parent entity, Inversiones Angelini, and SierraPine submitted premerger notification filings to the antitrust agencies as required by Section 7A. The HSR waiting period expired on August 27, 2014, 30 days after Flakeboard and SierraPine certified compliance with the Antitrust Division's requests for additional information.

16. Before negotiating the proposed acquisition, SierraPine had no plans to shut down the Springfield mill. But during negotiations, Flakeboard made clear that it did not intend to operate Springfield after the transaction closed. Flakeboard insisted that SierraPine close the mill because Flakeboard did not want to manage the shutdown, and its parent company, Arauco, was concerned that its reputation might be harmed if it announced the closure.

17. Accordingly, SierraPine agreed in the asset purchase agreement (APA) to "take such actions as are reasonably necessary to shut down and close all business operations at its Springfield, Oregon facility five (5) days prior to the Closing." The APA further provided that "in no event shall [SierraPine] be required to shut down or close its business operations at its Springfield, Oregon facility" until "[a]ny required waiting periods and approvals...under applicable Antitrust Law shall have expired or been terminated." Consistent with these provisions, when Flakeboard and SierraPine executed the APA, they anticipated that SierraPine would announce and implement the Springfield closure immediately after the HSR waiting period expired, but before the transaction was consummated.

V. THE DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

18. Despite the defendants' intentions under the APA, they subsequently entered into a series of agreements and took other actions during the HSR waiting period to close SierraPine's Springfield mill and move the mill's customers to Flakeboard—conduct that together constituted

1 an unlawful agreement between competitors and prematurely transferred operational control of
2 SierraPine's business to Flakeboard.

3 19. On January 14, 2014, the day after executing the APA, the defendants announced
4 Flakeboard's proposed acquisition of SierraPine's mills. SierraPine did not announce the 5 Springfield closure at that time because it intended to continue operating Springfield if the 6 acquisition was not consummated and knew that employees and customers would start leaving
7 the mill as soon as news of the planned closure became public.

8 20. Within two days of the transaction's announcement, however, a labor issue arose
9 that SierraPine believed would likely require it to publicly disclose the Springfield closure earlier
10 than planned, while the transaction was still being reviewed by the Department of Justice.
11 SierraPine immediately informed Flakeboard that the labor issue would require them to "share
12 the pending news on Springfield...before we have early determination on [the] HSR." The 13 following week, SierraPine and Flakeboard discussed the Springfield closure announcement, its 14 timing, and its ramifications. During these discussions, the companies considered the possibility 15 that Flakeboard might waive the provision requiring SierraPine to close the mill, which they 16 expected would avert the need to announce the Springfield closure during the HSR waiting 17 period.

18 21. After consulting with Arauco, however, Flakeboard informed SierraPine that it
19 would not waive the Springfield closure provision. As a result, the companies understood that 20 SierraPine would announce the Springfield closure during the HSR waiting period and that the 21 mill would close within weeks of that announcement, without regard to whether the HSR waiting 22 period had expired and regardless of whether the underlying transaction was ultimately 23 consummated. Consistent with this understanding, at the end of January, Flakeboard and 24 SierraPine agreed on the content and timing of a press release announcing that Springfield would 25 "cease operations in an orderly manner over the next few weeks" and that the mill would be 26 "permanent[ly] clos[ed]." SierraPine issued the press release on February 4, 2014, and ceased
27 production at Springfield on March 13, 2014, months before the HSR waiting period expired.

22. Flakeboard and SierraPine also agreed to transition Springfield's customers to Flakeboard's competing mill in Albany, Oregon. In the period leading up to the Springfield closure announcement, SierraPine gave Flakeboard competitively sensitive information about Springfield's customers—including the name, contact information, and types and volume of products purchased by each Springfield customer—and Flakeboard distributed this information to its sales employees. SierraPine also agreed to Flakeboard's request to delay the issuance of the press release from February 3 to February 4 so that Flakeboard could better position its sales personnel to contact Springfield's customers.

23. In addition, at Flakeboard's request, SierraPine instructed its own sales employees to inform Springfield customers following the Springfield closure announcement that Flakeboard wanted to serve their business and would match SierraPine's prices. Also at Flakeboard's request, SierraPine relayed assurances of future employment with Flakeboard to key SierraPine sales employees so that they would direct SierraPine's Springfield customers to Flakeboard. A top Flakeboard sales manager underscored the purpose of these employment assurances: "Once that [Springfield closure] announcement is made the 74 [million square feet of particleboard] from Springfield becomes fair game. I...want to make sure that the SierraPine sales group will be trying to direct the business to their new employer and to [Flakeboard's Albany mill]."

24. After the Springfield closure announcement, SierraPine did not compete for most of Springfield's customers from its remaining particleboard mill in Martell, California, but instead directed these customers to Flakeboard, telling them that Flakeboard could meet their needs and would honor SierraPine's prices. As SierraPine informed one Springfield customer, "We will try and transition all business to [Flakeboard's] Albany [mill]."

25. With SierraPine's assistance, Flakeboard successfully secured a substantial amount of Springfield's business, including a significant number of new customers that Flakeboard had not previously served and additional business from customers that Springfield and Flakeboard's Albany mill both previously served. The increased sales volumes from SierraPine's Springfield customers significantly increased Flakeboard's profits.

1 26. Although Flakeboard and SierraPine subsequently abandoned their transaction on
2 September 30, 2014, SierraPine's Springfield mill remains closed. Virtually all of its employees
3 have voluntarily left or been terminated. Reopening the Springfield mill would be costly and 4 time-consuming, and SierraPine has no plans to do so.

5 6 VI. VIOLATIONS ALLEGED

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION 8 (Violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act)

9 27. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 26 of 10 this Complaint.

11 28. Flakeboard and SierraPine are horizontal competitors in the sale of particleboard.

12 29. Flakeboard, Arauco, and SierraPine's coordination to close SierraPine's
13 particleboard mill in Springfield, Oregon, and to move the mill's customers to Flakeboard 14 constituted a contract, combination, or conspiracy in restraint of trade that was unlawful under 15 Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1. Their unlawful agreement was not reasonably 16 necessary to achieve the procompetitive benefits of any legitimate business collaboration.

17 30. Flakeboard, Arauco, and SierraPine's actions to close the Springfield mill and 18 move its customers to Flakeboard were undertaken without any assurance that their transaction
19 would be consummated and constituted an agreement between competitors to reduce output and 20 allocate customers that is per se unlawful under Section 1 of the Sherman Act.

21 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION 22 (Violation of Section 7A of the Clayton Act)

23 31. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 26 of 24 this Complaint.

25 32. Flakeboard's acquisition of SierraPine's mills was subject to Section 7A's
26 premerger notification and waiting-period requirements.

33. Flakeboard, after contracting to acquire SierraPine's assets under the APA, exercised operational control, and therefore obtained beneficial ownership, over SierraPine's business in violation of the HSR Act by:

- (a) Coordinating with SierraPine to close the Springfield mill without regard to the HSR waiting period;
- (b) Coordinating with SierraPine to move Springfield's customers to Flakeboard during the HSR waiting period, by, among other things:
 - (i) obtaining competitively sensitive information from SierraPine, including a customer list with the name, contact information, and types and volume of products purchased by each Springfield customer, and distributing this confidential information to Flakeboard sales employees;
 - (ii) delaying the Springfield closure announcement so that Flakeboard could better position its sales team to contact Springfield's customers;
 - (iii) directing SierraPine sales employees to inform Springfield customers that Flakeboard sought their business and would match SierraPine's prices; and
 - (iv) coordinating with SierraPine to offer assurances of future employment with Flakeboard to key SierraPine sales employees so that they would direct Springfield's customers to Flakeboard.

34. Through these actions, Flakeboard exercised operational control, and therefore obtained beneficial ownership, of SierraPine's business before the HSR waiting period expired.

35. The defendants were continuously in violation of Section 7A from on or about January 17, 2014, until the HSR waiting period expired on August 27, 2014. Thus, Inversiones Angelini, as Flakeboard's ultimate parent entity (together with Arauco and Flakeboard) and SierraPine are each liable to the United States for a maximum civil penalty of $16,000 per day.

VII. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

36. The United States requests that this Court:

- (a) adjudge and decree that Flakeboard, Arauco, and SierraPine engaged in an agreement, combination, or conspiracy that was unlawful under Section 1 of the Sherman Act;
- (b) award the United States such other relief, including equitable monetary relief, as the nature of this case may require and as is just and proper to prevent the recurrence of the alleged violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act and to dissipate the anticompetitive effects of the violation;
- (c) adjudge and decree that the defendants violated the HSR Act and were in violation of the HSR Act during the period beginning on or about January 17, 2014, and ending on August 27, 2014;
- (d) order that Inversiones Angelini (together with Arauco and Flakeboard) and SierraPine each pay to the United States an appropriate civil penalty as provided under Section 7A(g)(1) of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18(a)(g)(1), and 16 C.F.R. § 1.98(a); and
- (e) award the United States the costs of this action.

Case No. 3:14-cv-4949

STIPULATION

The undersigned parties hereby stipulate and agree, subject to approval and entry by the Court, that:

1 1. For the purposes of this action, the Court has jurisdiction over each of the parties and
2 venue of this action is proper in the United States District Court for the Northern District of 3 California. The Defendants also waive service of summons on the Complaint.

4 2. The parties stipulate that a proposed Final Judgment in the form attached as Exhibit A
5 may be filed with and entered by the Court, upon the motion of any party or upon the Court's 6 own motion, at any time after compliance with the requirements of the Antitrust Procedures and 7 Penalties Act ("APPA"), 15 U.S.C. § 16, and without further notice to any party or other
8 proceedings, provided that the United States has not withdrawn its consent, which it may do at 9 any time before the entry of the proposed Final Judgment by serving notice thereof on the 10 Defendant and by filing that notice with the Court.

11 3. The Defendants agree to arrange, at their expense, publication as quickly as possible of 12 the newspaper notices required by the APPA, which shall be drafted by the United States in its 13 sole discretion. The publication shall be arranged no later than three business days after the 14 Defendants' receipt from the United States of the text of the notice and the identity of the 15 newspapers within which the publication shall be made. The Defendants shall promptly send to 16 the United States (1) confirmation that publication of the newspaper notices has been arranged,
17 and (2) the certification of the publication prepared by the newspapers within which the notice
18 was published.

19 4. The Defendants shall abide by and comply with the provisions of the proposed Final
20 Judgment, pending the proposed Final Judgment's entry by the Court, or until expiration of time
21 for all appeals of any Court ruling declining entry of the proposed Final Judgment, and shall,
22 from the date of the signing of this Stipulation by the parties, comply with all the terms and
23 provisions of the proposed Final Judgment as though the same were in full force and effect as an 24 order of the Court.

25 5. This Stipulation will apply with equal force and effect to any amended proposed Final 26 Judgment agreed upon in writing by the parties and submitted to the Court.

1 6. In the event (1) the United States has withdrawn its consent, as provided in Paragraph 2
2 above, or (2) the proposed Final Judgment is not entered pursuant to this Stipulation, the time has
3 expired for all appeals of any court ruling declining entry of the proposed Final Judgment, and
4 the Court has not otherwise ordered continued compliance with the terms and provisions of the 5 proposed Final Judgment, then the parties are released from all further obligations under this 6 Stipulation, and the making of this Stipulation shall be without prejudice to any party in this or 7 any other proceeding.

8 7. The Defendants represent that the actions they are required to perform and the payments
9 they are required to make pursuant to the proposed Final Judgment can and will be
10 accomplished, and that the Defendants will later raise no claim of mistake, hardship or difficulty
11 of compliance as grounds for asking the Court to modify any of the provisions contained therein.

[PROPOSED] FINAL JUDGMENT

WHEREAS, Plaintiff, United States of America, filed its Complaint on November 7, 2014, alleging that Defendants violated Section 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a, and that Flakeboard America Limited, Celulosa Arauco y Constitución, S.A., and SierraPine violated Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, and without this Final Judgment constituting any evidence against or admission by any party regarding any issue of fact or law;

NOW THEREFORE, before any testimony is taken, and without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law, and upon the consent of the parties, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

I. JURISDICTION

This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of and each of the parties to this action.  20 SierraPine as defined above, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of 21 them who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise. This
 22 Court orders the relief in Section IV of this Final Judgment under Section 7A of the Clayton Act,
 23 15 U.S.C. § 18a. All other relief in this Final Judgment is to remedy the violation of Section 1 of 24 the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1.

IV. CIVIL PENALTY UNDER SECTION 7A OF THE CLAYTON ACT

Within 30 days of the entry of this Final Judgment, Flakeboard, Arauco, and the Ultimate Parent Entity must pay $1.9 million to the United States, and within 60 days of the entry of this Final Judgment, SierraPine must pay $1.9 million to the United States, for a total of $3.8 million.

V. DISGORGEMENT TO REMEDY THE VIOLATION OF SECTION 1 OF THE SHERMAN ACT

Within 30 days of the entry of this Final Judgment, Flakeboard must pay $1.15 million in disgorgement to the United States.

VI. PAYMENT OF CIVIL PENALTY AND DISGORGEMENT

VIII. PERMITTED CONDUCT

Nothing in this Final Judgment prohibits Defendants from:

- A. entering into an Agreement that a party to a Transaction must continue operating in the ordinary course of business;
- B. entering into an Agreement that a party to a Transaction forego conduct that would cause a material adverse change in the value of to-be-acquired assets;
- C. before closing or abandoning a Transaction, conducting or participating in reasonable and customary due diligence, though no disclosure covered by this section is permitted unless (1) the information is reasonably related to a party's understanding of future earnings and prospects; and (2) the disclosure occurs under a non-disclosure agreement that (a) limits use of the information to conducting due diligence and (b) prohibits disclosure of the information to any employee of the Person receiving the information who is directly responsible for the marketing, pricing, or sales of the Competing Products;
- D. disclosing confidential business information related to Competing Products, subject to a protective order, in the context of litigation or settlement discussions; or
- E. entering into an Agreement where either one of the Defendants and the other party to the Transaction are or would be in a buyer/seller relationship and the Agreement would be lawful in the absence of the planned acquisition.

IX. ANTITRUST COMPLIANCE PROGRAM

- A. Flakeboard and SierraPine must each maintain an antitrust compliance program that designates, within 30 days of entry of this order, an Antitrust Compliance Officer with responsibility for achieving compliance with this Final Judgment. The Antitrust Compliance Officer must, on a continuing basis, supervise the review of current and proposed activities to

1 ensure compliance with this Final Judgment. The Antitrust Compliance Officer must also do the 2 following:

- 3 1. Distribute within 45 days of entry of this Final Judgment, a copy of this 4 Final Judgment to each current officer and director, all sales managers and
5 supervisors, and each employee, agent, or other person who, in each case,
6 has responsibility for or authority over mergers and acquisitions; and for 7 Flakeboard's Antitrust Compliance Officer, a copy of this Final Judgment
8 to each current officer and director of Arauco;
- 9 2. distribute in a timely manner a copy of this Final Judgment to any officer,
10 director, employee, or agent who succeeds to a position described in 11 Section IX.A.1;
- 12 3. obtain within 60 days from the entry of this Final Judgment, and annually
13 thereafter, and retain for the duration of this Final Judgment, a written 14 certification from each person designated in Sections IX.A.1 & 2 that he
15 or she (a) has received, read, understands, and agrees to abide by the terms
16 of this Final Judgment; (b) understands that failure to comply with this 17 Final Judgment may result in conviction for criminal contempt of court;
18 and (c) is not aware of any violation of the Final Judgment; and
- 19 4. provide a copy of this Final Judgment to each potential partner to a merger
20 or acquisition before the initial exchange of a letter of intent, definitive 21 agreement, or other agreement of merger.

22 B. Within 60 days of entry Flakeboard and SierraPine must each certify to Plaintiff
23 that it has (1) designated an Antitrust Compliance Officer, specifying his or her name, business
24 address, and telephone number; and (2) distributed the Final Judgment in accordance with 25 Section IX.A.1.

1 C. For the term of this Final Judgment, on or before its anniversary date, Flakeboard
2 and SierraPine must each file with Plaintiff an annual statement as to the fact and manner of its
3 compliance with the provisions of Sections VII and IX.

4 D. Within 45 days of entry of this Final Judgment, Arauco must distribute a copy of 5 this Final Judgment to each current officer and director, sales manager and supervisor, and 6 employee, agent, or other person who, in each case, has responsibility for any business in the 7 United States.

8 E. If any director, officer, or Antitrust Compliance Officer of any of the Defendants
9 learns of a violation of this Final Judgment, that Defendant must within three business days take 10 appropriate action to terminate or modify the activity so as to assure compliance with this Final 11 Judgment, and must notify the Plaintiff of the violation within 10 business days.

12 X. RIGHT TO INSPECTION

13 A. For the purpose of determining or securing compliance with this Final Judgment,
14 any related orders, or determining whether the Final Judgment should be modified or vacated,
15 and subject to any legally recognized privilege, authorized representatives of the United States
16 Department of Justice, including consultants and other persons retained by the United States,
17 shall, upon written request of an authorized representative of the Assistant Attorney General in 18 charge of the Antitrust Division, and on reasonable notice to the Defendants, be permitted:

- 19 1. access during Defendants' office hours to inspect and copy or at Plaintiff's
20 option, to require Defendants to provide hard copy or electronic copies of,
21 all books, ledgers, accounts, records, data, and documents in the 22 possession, custody, or control of Defendants, relating to any matters
23 contained in this Final Judgment; and
- 24 2. to interview, either informally or on the record, Defendants' officers,
25 employees, or agents, who may have their individual counsel present,
26 regarding such matters. The interviews are subject to the reasonable 27

1 convenience of the interviewee and without restraint or interference by
2 Defendants.

3 B. Upon written request of an authorized representative of the Assistant Attorney
4 General in charge of the Antitrust Division, Defendants must submit written reports or responses
5 to written interrogatories, under oath if requested, relating to any of the matters contained in this
6 Final Judgment as may be requested.

7 C. No information or documents obtained by the means provided in this section may 8 be divulged by the Plaintiff to any person other than an authorized representative of the executive
9 branch of the United States, except in the course of legal proceedings to which the United States
10 is a party (including grand jury proceedings), or for the purpose of securing compliance with this 11 Final Judgment, or as otherwise required by law.

12 D. If, at the time a Defendant furnishes information or documents to Plaintiff, the 13 Defendant represents and identifies in writing the material in any such information or documents
14 to which a claim of protection may be asserted under Rule 26(c)(1)(G) of the Federal Rules of 15 Civil Procedure, and the Defendant marks each pertinent page of such material, "Subject to claim
16 of protection under Rule 26(c)(1)(G) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure," then the United
17 States shall give 10 calendar days' notice before divulging that material in any legal proceeding
18 (other than a grand jury proceeding) to which the Defendant is not a party.

19 XI. RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

20 This Court retains jurisdiction to enable any party to this Final Judgment to apply to this
21 Court at any time for further orders and directions as may be necessary or appropriate to carry
22 out or construe this Final Judgment, to modify any of its provisions, to enforce compliance, and 23 to punish any violations of its provisions.
24

XII. EXPIRATION OF FINAL JUDGMENT

Unless extended by this Court, this Final Judgment expires ten years from the date of its entry.

XIII. COSTS
