03/24/2015	214	ORDER granting 210 Letter Motion for Extension of Time to File. By letter dated March 11, 2015, Defendants seek to adjourn the May 8, 2015 deadline for submission of a Joint Pre-Trial Order (ECF No. 210). Plaintiffs oppose that application by letter dated March 13, 2015 (ECF No. 211). In view of the fact that motions for class certification and to quash third party subpoenas are sub judice, Defendants' request for an enlargement of time is reasonable. In addition, Defendants have announced their intention to seek leave to file a summary judgment motion. Accordingly, the time for the parties to file a Joint Pre-Trial Order is adjourned sine die. If Defendants intend to file a summary judgment motion, they should submit a letter requesting a pre-motion conference no later than May 8, 2015. This Court will fix a schedule for submission of the Joint Pre-Trial Order at that pre-motion conference. Defendants shall inform this Court promptly if they decide to forego a summary judgment motion. The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate the motion pending at ECF No. 210. SO ORDERED. 10/15/2015	300	LETTER addressed to Judge William H. Pauley, III from Kenneth A. Gallo dated October 15, 2015 re: Communications with Class Members. Document filed by News America Incorporated, News America Marketing FSI L.L.C., News America Marketing In-Store Services, L. L. C., News Corporation.(Gallo, Kenneth) (Entered: 10/15/2015)

10/15/2015	301	MEMORANDUM & ORDER: This Court is cognizant of the potential benefits to the Class in the pooling of Plaintiffs' counsel's resources and individualized expertise. However, it is the duty of this Court to guard against inefficiencies-which is why this Court, on two separate occasions, directed Plaintiffs' counsel to propose no more than two firms as co-lead counsel. That direction was thwarted by all five law firms' unilateral decision to designate Kramer Levin and McKool Smith as co-lead trial counsel and co-lead settlement counsel who will also "argu[e] any opposition to a motion for summary judgment." So now, this Court is confounded by a bizarre circumstance of Plaintiffs' counsel's own making. Susman Godfrey and Kellogg Huber, co-lead counsel, have ceded responsibility for summary judgment, trial, and any settlement to Kramer Levin and McKool Smith. And they did so prior to proposing themselves as co-lead counsel. This Court could simply unravel these machinations by either stripping Susman Godfrey and Kellogg Huber of their title as co-lead counsel, or rejecting Plaintiffs' counsel's agreement that Kramer Levin and McKool Smith serve as co-lead trial and settlement counsel. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(1)(E) (the court "may make further orders in connection with the appointment" of class counsel). However, either action might upset the intricate financial arrangements among the consumer packaged goods companies and their counsel, and interfere with the schedule fixed by this Court. Indeed, a firm date for jury selection and trial looms. Thus, this Court adopts a pragmatic approach-Susman Godfrey and Kellogg Huber can keep their title, even if it is just an ornament. And Kramer Levin and McKool Smith can continue in their role as co-lead trial and settlement counsel. Of course, "[t]he ultimate responsibility to ensure that the interests of class members are not subordinated to the interests of...class counsel rests with [this Court]." Maywalt v. Parker &amp; Parsley Petroleum Co. , 67 F.3d 1072, 1078 (2d Cir. 1995). This Court reminds Plaintiffs' counsel of their duty to avoid duplication of effort and multiplication of attorneys' fees. In view of this Memorandum & Order, Plaintiffs' counsel's request for a conference is denied. (As further set forth in this Order.) (Signed by Judge William H. Pauley, III on 10/15/2015) (mro) (Entered: 10/15/2015)
