09/10/2010	174	Minute Entry: PROCEEDINGS:Telephone Conference : Discovery dispute re Protective Order. RESULTS: The court discussed with counsel by teleconference the protective order being formulated by the parties and determined: (1) all future discovery matters requiring judicial intervention should be brought to the undersigned's attention (or, in his absence, Magistrate Judge Spero) informally by telephone call by one of the parties' discovery coordinators or brief letter; (2) paragraph 2.7 of the court's model protective order for intellectual property cases may be used to define expert with the deletion of past employee, but with the addition of a sentence that requires a party designating an expert who is a former employee of another party to give notice of the designation to the former employer; and (3) the parties' protective order shall contain only one level of confidentiality although it may, if necessary, borrow provisions from the court's model protective order pertaining to the highly confidential designation. If the parties cannot agree on a protective order, the respective discovery coordinators shall submit proposed orders. VAUGHN R. WALKER, United States District Chief Judge. 09/29/2010	237	Minute Entry: Discovery Hearing and Further Case Management Conference held on 9/29/2010 before Judge Vaughn R Walker. RESULTS: The court heard argument from counsel and set a briefing schedule for motions to dismiss and deadlines for service as follows: Plaintiffs are ordered to report to the court, on or before November 1, 2010, the status of service of any defendants unserved as of September 29, 2010. If any party has not been served by November 1, plaintiffs shall request a reasonable time to effect service and the court will set a deadline for service under the Hague Convention. The briefing schedule for defendants' joint motion to dismiss the consolidated direct purchaser complaint is as follows: Opening memorandum of not more than forty pages due on or before October 12, 2010. Opposition of not more than forty pages due on or before November 12, 2010. Reply of not more than fifteen pages due on or before December 3, 2010. The briefing schedule for defendants' joint motion to dismiss the consolidated indirect purchaser complaint is as follows: Opening memorandum of not more than forty pages due on or before October 12, 2010. Opposition of not more than forty pages due on or before November 12, 2010. Reply of not more than fifteen pages due on or before December 3, 2010. Additional memoranda may be filed by individual defendants in accordance with the above-described schedules. Opening memoranda shall be not more than six pages, oppositions not more than six pages and replies not more than four pages. The parties, however, are reminded to consolidate argument where appropriate. The court understands that the motions to dismiss under the Foreign Trade Antitrust Improvements Act, 15 USC § 6a, contemplated by certain defendants will be incorporated in the foregoing briefing. If this is incorrect, the parties should promptly inform the court and jointly request an appropriate briefing schedule. A hearing date on the above motions to dismiss will be determined at a later date. All defendants, if they so choose, may file a motion to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction on or before November 24, 2010. The parties shall agree to a briefing schedule; these motions, if any, shall be heard on March 10, 2011 or as may be later set. Lastly, plaintiffs are entitled to written responses to their interrogatories and discovery requests. (Court Reporter:
