FINAL JUDGMENT AS TO DEFENDANT ALBERMARLE PAPER COMPANY

This cause was regularly brought on for trial on January 26, 1966, and this Court having entered its opinion, findings and conclusions, and Final Judgment on August 31, 1967 dismissing the complaint, an appeal having been taken to the Supreme Court of the United States and the Supreme Court having entered its opinion on January 14, 1969 and issued its mandate on that date reversing and remaining the cause for further proceedings in conformity with its opinion;

NOW, THEREPORE, it is hereby; ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I

The conduct of the defendants in furnishing to one another, upon request, information as to the most recent price charged or quoted to specific customers on specific orders in the circumstances in this case constituted a combination in restraint of trade in violation of Section 1 of the Act of Congress of July 2, 1890, (15 U.S.C. $1) entitled "An act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies" commonly known as the Sherman Act, as amended.

II

The plaintiff's demand for injunctive relief, no longer being necessary, is hereby denied because of the following circumstances:

After the entry of this court's final judgment on August 31, 1967 and prior to the Supreme Court's Opinion of January 14, 1969, the defendant Albermarle Paper Company terminated its engagement in the manufacture and sale of all paper and paper products including corrugated containers and sold and transferred all of its assets theretofore used therefor to a corporation not affiliated with it. Thereafter, on February 20, 1969, the said Albermarle Paper Company was dissolved after it hed been marged into its parent, Ethyl Corporation.

III

The defendant Albernarie Paper Company shall pay its appropriate taxable costs herein.
