WHEREAS, a subset of Plaintiff States filed a complaint against Macmillan and others in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas on April 11, 2012; that action was transferred to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York ("the Court"), on April 30, 2012 as *Texas and Connecticut, et al. v. III. ORDER AND STIPULATED INJUNCTION

As part of this Settlement Agreement, Plaintiff States, the Settlement Class and Macmillan have agreed to the entry of an Order and Stipulated Injunction in the form of Attachment A, the terms and conditions of which are incorporated into this Settlement Agreement as though set forth in this Section III in full. The Order and Stipulated Injunction shall be modified to take into account any changes made to the language of the United States Department of Justice's Proposed Final Judgment against Macmillan as entered in United States of America v. Apple, Inc., et al., Case No. 12-cv-2826, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, so that the requirements of the Order and Stipulated Injunction are in substance the same as the Final Judgment entered against Macmillan in United States of America v. Apple, Inc., et al. The terms set forth in the Order and Stipulated Injunction shall govern the enforcement of this Section III.

IV. MONETARY PAYMENTS

A. Macmillan agrees to pay to the Plaintiffs the total sum of $20 million for Consumer compensation for alleged actual losses arising from the acts alleged in the Complaints. This amount shall be paid to the Plaintiffs, c/o Fifth Third Bank, Escrow Agent, within ninety (90) days after the execution of this Settlement Agreement by the Parties. The Escrow Agent shall establish the Macmillan Consumer Compensation Settlement Account from the monies received from Macmillan under this Paragraph. These monies, plus any accrued interest, shall be used to fund the Consumer distribution as described in Paragraph VI.A. The Escrow Agent shall only distribute funds in the Macmillan Consumer Compensation Settlement Account pursuant to a Court-approved Distribution Plan which has become Final within the meaning of Paragraph I.J.

B. Macmillan further agrees to pay to Plaintiff States the sum of $3 million for their costs of investigation and litigation and other related costs as provided in Paragraph VI.B. This amount shall be paid to Plaintiff States, c/o Fifth Third Bank, Escrow Agent, within ninety (90) days after the execution of this Settlement Agreement by the Parties. The Escrow Agent shall establish the States' Compensation Settlement Account from the monies received from Macmillan under this Paragraph. These monies, plus any accrued interest, shall be apportioned among Plaintiff States in a manner to be determined among and between them as set forth in Paragraph VI.B.

C. Macmillan further agrees to pay to Counsel for the Settlement Class the sum of $2,475,000 for their attorneys' fees, costs of investigation, litigation and other related costs (the "Fee and Expense Award"). Counsel for the Settlement Class agree not to seek a Fee and Expense Award in excess of this amount. The Fee and Expense Award shall be paid by Macmillan to an account designated by Counsel for Settlement Class, as awarded by the Court, within 30 days after the Court executes an order awarding such fees and expenses. In the event that the settlement does not become Final, or the Final Judgment is reversed or modified, or the order making the fee and expense award is reversed or modified, or the Settlement Agreement is canceled or terminated for any other reason, and in the event that the Fee and Expense Award has been paid to any extent, then Counsel for the Settlement Class Counsel shall within ten (10) business days from receiving notice from Macmillan's counsel or from a court of appropriate jurisdiction, refund to Macmillan the Fee and Expense Award or any portion thereof previously paid to them plus interest thereon at the same rate as earned by the Settlement Accounts.

D. Macmillan further agrees to pay a service award as awarded by the Court for the Settlement Class Plaintiffs up to a maximum of $1,000 each. This amount shall be paid into an account designated by Counsel for the Settlement Class, as awarded by the Court, within thirty (30) days after the Court executes an order awarding such service awards. Settlement Class Plaintiffs agree not to seek a service award in excess of this amount. The service awards will be payable from the Settlement Accounts thirty (30) days after the settlement becomes Final.

E. Macmillan will also pay for Settlement Administrative Costs in accordance with Paragraphs IV.E, F & G. The Escrow Agent shall establish the Macmillan Settlement Cost Account from the monies received from Macmillan under these Paragraphs. These monies, plus any accrued interest, shall be used to pay the Settlement Administration Costs pursuant to the terms of this Settlement Agreement. The Escrow Agent shall pay invoices only as provided by an order of the Court, or pursuant to Written Direction.

F. All Settlement Administrative Costs attributable to securing Court approval of this Settlement Agreement (including, but not limited to, the preparation and dissemination of a proposed distribution plan and consumer notice and the preparation of Court filings) shall be the sole responsibility of Macmillan and will be paid from the Macmillan Settlement Cost Account funds. Costs attributable to matters incurred after final Court approval (including, but not limited to, the distribution of funds to Consumers, States and Class) shall be paid, on a per capita basis, by Macmillan, Hachette, HarperCollins and Simon & Schuster. Payment of Macmillan's share of such costs will be paid by Escrow Agent from the Macmillan Settlement Cost Account pursuant to Written Direction.

G. Payments for the Macmillan Settlement Cost Account will be made as follows:

1. $750,000 shall be paid by Macmillan to the Plaintiffs c/o Fifth Third Bank, Escrow Agent, within five (5) business days after the execution of this Settlement Agreement by counsel for Liaison States, Settlement Class and Macmillan.
2. Upon notice by counsel for the Liaison States and Settlement Class that additional funds are necessary to pay Settlement Administration Costs, Macmillan shall make a supplemental deposit of such additional amount into the Settlement Cost Account within ten (10) business days after such notice.
3. After counsel for the Liaison States and Settlement Class have confirmed in writing that all incurred, committed or anticipated Settlement Administration Costs have been paid or accounted for, the Escrow Agent shall refund to Macmillan all unused funds in the Macmillan Settlement Cost Account, if any, within twenty (20) business days after such confirmation.

H. Macmillan warrants that, as of the date of this Settlement Agreement, it is not insolvent, nor will its payment to the Settlement Accounts render it insolvent within the meaning of and/or for the purposes of the United States Bankruptcy Code. If a case is commenced with respect to Macmillan under Title 11 of the United States Code (Bankruptcy), or a trustee, receiver or conservator is appointed under any similar law, and in the event of the entry of a final order of a court of competent jurisdiction determining the payment of the principal amount of the Settlement Accounts and any accrued interest, or any portion thereof, by or on behalf of Macmillan, to be a preference, voidable transfer, fraudulent transfer or similar transaction, and if pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction monies paid by Macmillan pursuant to this Settlement Agreement are either not delivered or are returned to Macmillan or the trustee, receiver, or conservator appointed by a court in any bankruptcy proceeding with respect to Macmillan, the releases given and judgment entered in favor of Macmillan pursuant to this Settlement Agreement shall be null and void.

I. The payments hereunder do not constitute nor shall they be treated as payments in lieu of treble damages, fines, penalties, punitive recoveries or forfeitures.

J. The payments made by Macmillan to the Settlement Accounts (including the additional payments contemplated pursuant to Paragraph IV.G.2) shall be the total amount to be paid by Macmillan under this Settlement Agreement or in connection with Released Claims. In no event will the payments made by Macmillan, excluding any additional payments required pursuant to Paragraph IV.G.2., exceed $26,250,000.

K. Except as provided in Paragraph IV.G.3, upon the Effective Date all remaining interest or right of Macmillan in or to the funds in the Settlement Accounts shall be absolutely and forever extinguished.

V. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION

A. The Escrow Agent for the Settlement Accounts shall be Fifth Third Bank. Macmillan will pay reasonable and customary costs of the Escrow Agent in accordance with Paragraphs IV.E, F and G. Other than maintaining an account to meet short-term obligations, the Escrow Agent shall invest the funds in the Settlement Accounts in obligations of, or obligations guaranteed by, the United States of America or any of its departments or agencies, to obtain the highest available return on investment, and shall reinvest the proceeds of these instruments as they mature in similar instruments at their then current market rates. The Escrow Agent shall bear all risks related to the investment of the escrow funds.

B. The Escrow Agent shall not disburse the funds of the Settlement Accounts except by an order of the Court or pursuant to Written Direction.

C. All funds held by the Escrow Agent shall be deemed to be in custodia legis of the Court, and shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, until the funds shall be distributed pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and/or further order(s) of the Court.

D. In addition to the Escrow Agent, Plaintiff States and the Settlement Class have employed Rust Consulting, Inc., as the claims administrator, to facilitate the provision of notice and to distribute and/or administer the distribution of the funds in the Macmillan Consumer Compensation Settlement Account in accordance with the terms of this Settlement Agreement. Macmillan will pay the reasonable and customary costs of such claims administrator in accordance with Paragraphs IV.E, F and G.

E. If this Settlement Agreement is not approved or fails to become effective, all monies paid by Macmillan under this Settlement Agreement, including any interest accrued thereon, shall be refunded to Macmillan, reduced by the amount of actual reasonable and customary out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred or committed for Settlement Administration Costs as of the date of disapproval, or the date of failure to become effective. In the case of disapproval by the Court, refund shall occur within five (5) business days of the Court's decision becoming Final, as defined in Paragraph I.J. In all other cases, refund shall occur within five (5) business days after the occurrence of the event resulting in the refund.

F. If this Settlement Agreement is not approved or fails to become effective, Plaintiffs shall retain full rights to assert any and all causes of action against Macmillan, including the right to amend the Complaints to include additional allegations, claims, causes of action and requests for relief and Macmillan shall retain any and all defenses thereto.

G. Tax Treatment of Settlement Accounts

1. Parties and Escrow Agent agree to treat the Settlement Accounts as being, at all times, a “qualified settlement fund” within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-1(a). In addition, the Escrow Agent and, as required, Parties shall jointly and timely make such elections as necessary or advisable to carry out the provisions of this Section V.G., including the “relation-back election” (as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-1(j)(2)(ii)), back to the earliest permitted date. Such elections shall be made in compliance with the procedures and requirements contained in such regulation. It shall be the responsibility of the Escrow Agent to timely and properly prepare and deliver the necessary documentation for signature by all necessary Parties, and thereafter to cause the appropriate filing to occur.

2. For the purpose of § 468B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, the “administrator” shall be the Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent shall timely and properly file all informational and other tax returns necessary or advisable with respect to the Settlement Accounts (including without limitation the returns described in Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-2(k) and (l)). Such returns (as well as the election described in Section V.G.1.) shall be consistent with this Section V.G and in all events shall reflect that all taxes (including any estimated taxes, interest or penalties) on the income earned by the Settlement Accounts shall be paid out of the Settlement Accounts.

3. All taxes (including any estimated taxes, interest or penalties) arising with respect to the income earned by the Settlement Accounts, including any taxes that may be imposed upon Macmillan with respect to any income earned by the Settlement Accounts for any period during which the Settlement Accounts do not qualify as a "qualified settlement fund" for federal, state, or local income tax purposes ("Taxes") shall be paid out of the Settlement Accounts and in all events Macmillan and its insurers shall have no liability or responsibility for such Taxes or the filing of any tax returns or other documents with the Internal Revenue Service or any other state or local taxing authority in respect of such Taxes. Taxes shall be treated as, and considered to be, a cost of administration of the Settlement Agreement and shall be timely paid by the Escrow Agent out of the Settlement Accounts without prior order from the Court and the Escrow Agent shall be obligated (notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary) to withhold from distribution to Plaintiff States any funds necessary to pay such amounts including the establishment for adequate reserves for any Taxes (as well as any amounts that may be required to be withheld under Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-2(l)(2)); Macmillan and its insurers are not responsible and shall have no liability therefor or for any reporting requirements that may relate thereto. The Parties agree to cooperate with the Escrow Agent, each other, and their tax attorneys and accountants to the extent reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Section V.G. For purposes of this Section V.G., references to the Settlement Accounts shall include the Settlement Accounts and any earnings thereon. In no event will any Taxes be treated as Settlement Administration Costs, and no Taxes will be paid out of the Macmillan Settlement Cost Account.

VI. SETTLEMENT DISBURSEMENTS

A. Distribution to Consumers: All funds in the Macmillan Consumer Compensation Settlement Account shall be distributed, according to a Court-approved Distribution Plan, for the benefit of Consumers who have not filed with the Court valid and timely requests for exclusion from this settlement. Parties agree that if the Final Judgment becomes Final, the funds in this Account may be transferred to an escrow account which will combine all consumer monies from all related settlements for the purpose of consumer distribution.

1. The Distribution Plan shall be submitted to the Court for approval in connection with Plaintiff States' and the Settlement Class's Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Settlement ("Motion for Preliminary Approval"). To the extent practicable, the Distribution Plan to be submitted will track the provisions of the Distribution Plan previously approved by the Court in the Prior Settlements.

2. Any funds not initially distributed, will be distributed pursuant to subsequent consumer distributions, if feasible or, if approved by the Court, will be distributed cy pres to one or more charitable organizations whose purposes relate to reading, literacy or access by the public to electronic books. Plaintiff States and Settlement Class will propose specific cy pres recipients to the Court prior to the time for objections or requests for exclusion from class members.

3. Funds remaining due to uncashed checks or unused or unactivated credits will similarly be used for additional consumer distributions to the fullest extent possible. To the extent state law contradicts any portion of such distributions, Plaintiffs will submit proposed plans for alternative distributions for Court approval.

4. The Parties agree and understand that any proposed Distribution Plan is to be considered by the Court separately from the Court's consideration of the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the settlement set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and any order or proceedings relating to the Distribution Plan shall not operate to terminate or cancel the Settlement Agreement or affect the finality of the Court's Final Judgment approving the Settlement Agreement and the settlement set forth herein, or any other orders entered pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.

B. Distribution of Compensation to Plaintiff States: The States' Compensation Settlement Account shall be used to reimburse counsel for Plaintiff States for payment of attorneys' fees, costs, and administrative expenses incurred by Plaintiff States, and as other payments. Such Account shall be apportioned among Plaintiff States at their sole discretion. Such apportionments shall then be used collectively or individually by Plaintiff States' Attorneys General for one or more of the following purposes:

1. Reimbursement for Plaintiff States' consultation or expert fees, including reimbursement of any grants paid to Plaintiff States in connection with the National Association of Attorneys General Milk Fund Account ("NAAG Milk Fund" or "Fund") for consultant and expert fees expended from the Fund;
2. Reimbursement of attorneys' fees, and investigation, litigation and settlement administration cost expenses incurred by any Plaintiff State;
3. Payment for the ongoing investigation and litigation involving the E-books market;
4. Antitrust or consumer protection enforcement by the Attorney General of such State;
5. Deposit into a state antitrust or consumer protection account, (e.g., revolving account, trust account), for use in accordance with the state laws governing that account;

6. Deposit into a fund exclusively dedicated to assisting the state Attorney General to defray the cost of experts, economists, and consultants in multistate antitrust investigations and litigations; or

7. As otherwise required or provided by the applicable state law enacted as of the Effective Date of this Settlement Agreement.¹

C. Disbursement for Payment of Administrative Costs: Upon Written Direction or Court Order, the Macmillan Settlement Cost Account shall be used by the Escrow Agent to pay the Settlement Administration Costs.

VII. NOTICE AND SETTLEMENT HEARING

A. Within thirty (30) days after execution of this Settlement Agreement by the Parties, Plaintiffs shall file the Motion for Preliminary Approval with the Court. The motion shall request entry of a preliminary approval order (the "Preliminary Approval Order"). Such Preliminary Approval Order shall include, among other things: (1) the preliminary approval of the settlement set forth in this Settlement Agreement as fair, reasonable and adequate and in the best interests of Consumers, (2) approval of a Notice Plan, including when the Notice shall be disseminated and the length of the Notice Period, (3) approval of a Distribution Plan that includes the time period during which eligible Consumers can object, exclude themselves, and/or obtain credits and/or a check, and (4) a schedule for a hearing by the Court after notice is given (the "Settlement Hearing") to approve the settlement of the litigation initiated by the Complaint, as set forth herein. At least five (5) days prior to filing their Motion for Preliminary Approval,

Plaintiffs shall provide a copy of such motion (including all exhibits and attachments of such motion) to Macmillan for review and comment.

B. Plaintiffs will provide Macmillan a substantially final copy of the Notice Plan, including the Notice, at least five (5) business days prior to filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval.

C. Plaintiffs shall disseminate Notice of the Settlement Agreement to potentially affected Consumers as soon as practicable after entry of the Preliminary Approval Order. The Parties contemplate a Notice Period of at least forty-five (45) days, unless another time period is set by the Court.

D. Within thirty (30) days following the conclusion of the Notice Period, Plaintiffs shall file with this Court a motion seeking final approval of the Settlement Agreement, including a determination by the Court (1) that the Settlement Agreement is approved finally as fair, reasonable and adequate, (2) that a Final Judgment approving the Settlement Agreement should be entered, (3) that the Order and Stipulated Injunction, substantially in the form of Attachment A, should be entered, (4) that an award of attorneys' fees, expenses and other payments should be made from the States' Compensation Settlement Account to counsel for Plaintiff States pursuant to Paragraphs IV.B and VI.B, (5) that an award of attorneys' fees and expenses should be made to Counsel for the Settlement Class pursuant to Paragraph IV.C.; and (6) that service awards should be made to the Settlement Class Plaintiffs pursuant to Paragraph IV.D.

VIII. RELEASED CLAIMS

A. In consideration of the monetary and injunctive provisions contained in this Settlement Agreement, each Plaintiff State will be deemed, upon the Effective Date, to have (and by operation of the Final Judgment shall have), fully, finally, and forever released

Macmillan, Macmillan's parent and affiliated entities, their successors and assigns, and their officers, directors, employees, and attorneys (collectively "Releasees") from all Claims that were asserted or could have been asserted by or on behalf of any Consumer residing in a Plaintiff State at the time of their E-book purchase(s) who did not timely file with the Court a valid request for exclusion from this settlement.

B. In further consideration of the monetary and injunctive provisions contained in this Settlement Agreement, each Settlement Class member who has not timely and validly excluded themselves, will be deemed, upon the Effective Date, to have (and by operation of the Final Judgment shall have), fully, finally, and forever released the Releasees from all Claims that were asserted or could have been asserted by any such Settlement Class member.

C. In further consideration of the monetary and injunctive provisions contained in this Settlement Agreement, each Plaintiff State will be deemed, upon the Effective Date, to have released the Releasees from all Claims that were asserted or could have been asserted by each Plaintiff State's Attorney General in his or her sovereign capacity as chief law enforcement officer of his or her respective state.

D. In further consideration of the monetary and injunctive provisions contained in this Settlement Agreement, each Plaintiff State's Attorney General covenants and agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, that it shall not hereafter seek to establish liability or assert Claims, in whole or in part, on behalf of itself or any other person or entity or class thereof, against the Releasees.

E. In further consideration of the monetary and injunctive provisions contained in this Settlement Agreement, the Final Judgment shall be deemed res judicata as to any such released Claim.

F. Plaintiffs and Macmillan expressly agree that they do not intend this Settlement Agreement nor any documents executed or submitted pursuant to this Settlement Agreement to be construed as a release or otherwise affect any rights Plaintiffs have or may have against any other entity whosoever, including Hachette, HarperCollins, Simon & Schuster, Penguin, Apple, Inc., or any of their parents, affiliated entities, officers, directors, employees, or attorneys. The Final Judgment approving this Settlement Agreement shall include a provision that this Settlement Agreement and anything done pursuant thereto shall not constitute a release except as to Releasees. Plaintiffs and Consumers reserve their rights as aforesaid.

G. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Parties each expressly waive any right or benefit available to them under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which provides as follows: "A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor," and all provisions, rights and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law or foreign law, that is similar, comparable or equivalent in effect to Section 1542 of the California Civil Code.

IX. COOPERATION AND IMPLEMENTATION

A. The Parties, and their respective counsel, agree to cooperate fully to implement the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

B. If a Plaintiff determines that Macmillan is not in compliance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement, it shall give Macmillan written notice of such non-compliance and Macmillan shall have fifteen (15) working days to respond in writing. If the Plaintiff is not satisfied with Macmillan's response, it shall notify Macmillan in writing and Macmillan shall have fifteen (15) working days to cure such non-compliance. If after such time a Plaintiff shall determine that Macmillan is still not in compliance, such Plaintiff may seek the civil remedies available to it under the terms of the Final Judgment and Order and Stipulated Injunction.

C. This Settlement Agreement shall not be used or construed by any person as an admission of liability by Macmillan to any party or person, or be deemed evidence of any violation of any statute or law or admission of any liability or wrongdoing by Macmillan or of the truth of any of the claims or allegations contained in the Complaint.

[PROPOSED] ORDER AND STIPULATED INJUNCTION

WHEREAS, Plaintiff States¹ filed their Second Amended Complaint on May 11, 2012 and Settlement Class² filed its Complaint on January 20, 2012, with both Complaints alleging that Macmillan (as hereinafter defined) and others conspired to raise retail prices of E-books in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. § 1;

And WHEREAS Plaintiff States and Settlement Class ("Plaintiffs") and Macmillan, by their respective attorneys, have consented to the entry of this Order and Stipulated Injunction without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law;

² "Settlement Class" includes all Consumers who resided in any State, Commonwealth or Territory of the United States, other than Plaintiff States, at the time of their E-book purchase.

AND WHEREAS, this Order and Stipulated Injunction does not constitute any admission by Macmillan that the law has been violated or of any issue of fact or law, other than that the jurisdictional facts as alleged in the Complaints are true;

AND WHEREAS, this Order and Stipulated Injunction shall be modified to take into account any changes, if any, made to the language of the United States Department of Justice's Final Judgment, as entered in United States of America v. Apple, Inc., et al., Case No. 12-cv-2826, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on _____, 2013 (the "DOJ Final Judgment") so that the requirements of this Order and Stipulated Injunction are in substance the same as the DOJ Final Judgment.

AND WHEREAS, Macmillan agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Order and Stipulated Injunction pending its approval by the Court;

AND WHEREAS, Plaintiffs require Macmillan to agree to undertake certain actions and refrain from certain conduct for the purpose of remedying the loss of competition alleged in the Complaints;

AND WHEREAS, Macmillan has represented to Plaintiffs that the actions and conduct restrictions can and will be undertaken and that it will later raise no claim of hardship or difficulty as grounds for asking the Court to modify any of the provisions contained below;

NOW THEREFORE, before any testimony is taken, without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law, and upon consent of Macmillan, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

I. JURISDICTION

This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and over Macmillan. The Complaints state a claim upon which relief may be granted against Macmillan under Section

1 of the Sherman Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. § 1.

II. DEFINITIONS

As used in this Order and Stipulated Injunction:

A. “Agency Agreement” means an agreement between an E-book Publisher and an E-book Retailer under which the E-book Publisher Sells E-books to consumers through the E-book Retailer, which under the agreement acts as an agent of the E-book Publisher and is paid a commission in connection with the Sale of one or more of the E-book Publisher’s E-books.

B. “Apple” means Apple, Inc., a California corporation with its principal place of business in Cupertino, California, its successors and assigns, and its parents, subsidiaries, divisions, groups, affiliates, partnerships, and joint ventures, and their directors, officers, managers, agents, and employees.

C. “Counsel for Settlement Class” means Hagens Berman Sobol Shapiro LLP and Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC.

D. “E-book” means an electronically formatted book designed to be read on a computer, a handheld device, or other electronic devices capable of visually displaying E-books. For purposes of this Order and Stipulated Injunction, the term E-book does not include (1) an audio book, even if delivered and stored digitally; (2) a standalone specialized software application or “app” sold through an “app store” rather than through an e-book store (e.g., through Apple’s “App Store” rather than through its “iBookstore” or “iTunes”) and not designed to be executed or read by or through a dedicated E-book reading device; (3) a media file containing an electronically formatted book for which most of the value to consumers is derived from audio or video content contained in the file that is not included in the print version of the book; or (4) the electronically formatted version of a book marketed solely for use in connection with academic coursework.

E. “E-book Publisher” means any Person that, by virtue of a contract or other relationship with an E-book’s author or other rights holder, owns or controls the necessary copyright or other authority (or asserts such ownership or control) over any E-book sufficient to distribute the E-book within the United States to E-book Retailers and to permit such E-book Retailers to Sell the E-book to consumers in the United States. Named Publishers are E-book Publishers. For purposes of this Order and Stipulated Injunction, E-book Retailers are not E-book Publishers.

F. “E-book Retailer” means any Person that lawfully Sells (or seeks to lawfully Sell) E-books to consumers in the United States, or through which a Named Publisher, under an Agency Agreement, Sells E-books to consumers. For purposes of this Order and Stipulated Injunction, Publishers and all other Persons whose primary business is book publishing are not E-book Retailers.

G. “Hachette” means Hachette Book Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in New York, New York, its successors and assigns, and its subsidiaries, divisions, groups, and partnerships, and their directors, officers, managers, agents, and employees.

I. “Including” means including, but not limited to.

J. “Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States” means the designated representatives for the Attorneys General of the States of Texas, Connecticut, and Ohio. All documents or information received by Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States pursuant to this Order may be shared with all Plaintiff States pursuant to confidentiality provisions contained herein.

L. “Named Publishers” means Hachette, HarperCollins, Macmillan, Penguin, and Simon & Schuster. Where this Order and Stipulated Injunction imposes an obligation on an E-Book Publisher to engage in or refrain from engaging in certain conduct, that obligation shall apply to Macmillan individually and to any joint venture or other business arrangement established by Macmillan and one or more Named Publishers.

M. “Penguin” means (1) Penguin Group (USA), Inc., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in New York, New York, (2) The Penguin Group, a division of U.K. corporation Pearson plc with its principal place of business in London, England; (3) The Penguin Publishing Company Ltd, a company registered in England and Wales with its principal place of business in London, England; and (4) Dorling Kindersley Holdings Limited, a company registered in England and Wales with its principal place of business in London, England; and each of their respective successors and assigns (expressly including Penguin Random House, a joint venture by and between Pearson plc and Bertelsmann SE & Co. KGaA, and any similar joint venture between Penguin and Random House Inc.); each of their respective subsidiaries, divisions, groups, and partnerships; and each of their respective directors, officers, managers, agents and employees.

N. "Person" means any natural person, corporation, company, partnership, joint venture, firm, association, proprietorship, agency, board, authority, commission, office, or other business or legal entity, whether private or governmental.

O. "Plaintiff States" means the States and Commonwealths of Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Puerto Rico, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin.

P. "Price MFN" means a term in an agreement between an E-book Publisher and an E-book Retailer under which:

1. the Retail Price at which an E-book Retailer or, under an Agency Agreement, an E-book Publisher Sells one or more E-books to consumers depends in any way on the Retail Price, or discounts from the Retail Price, at which any other E-book Retailer or the E-book Publisher, under an Agency Agreement, through any other E-book Retailer Sells the same E-book(s) to consumers;

2. the Wholesale Price at which the E-book Publisher Sells one or more E-books to that E-book Retailer for Sale to consumers depends in any way on the Wholesale Price at which the E-book Publisher Sells the same E-book(s) to any other E-book Retailer for Sale to consumers; or

3. the revenue share or commission that the E-book Retailer receives from the E-book Publisher in connection with the Sale of one or more E-books to consumers depends in any way on the revenue share or commission that (a) any other E-book Retailer receives from the E-book Publisher in connection with the Sale of the same E-book(s) to consumers, or (b) that the E-book Retailer receives from any other E-book Publisher in connection with the Sale of one or more of the other E-book Publisher's E-books.

For purposes of this Final Judgment, it will not constitute a Price MFN under subsection 3 of this definition if Macmillan agrees, at the request of an E-book Retailer, to meet more favorable pricing, discounts, or allowances offered to the E-book Retailer by another E-book Publisher for the period during which the other E-book Publisher provides that additional compensation, so long as that agreement is not or does not result from a pre-existing agreement that requires Macmillan to meet all requests by the E-book Retailer for more favorable pricing within the terms of the agreement.

Q. "Purchase" means a consumer's acquisition of one or more E-books as a result of a Sale.

R. "Retail Price" means the price at which an E-book Retailer or, under an Agency Agreement, an E-book Publisher Sells an E-book to a consumer.

IV. REQUIRED CONDUCT

A. For each E-book Retailer to whom Macmillan gave notice (pursuant to Section IV.A of the DOJ Final Judgment) that Holtzbrinck will no longer enforce any term or terms in any agreement that restricts, limits, or impedes the E-book Retailer’s ability to set, alter or reduce the Retail Price of any E-book or to offer price discounts or any other form of promotions to encourage consumers to Purchase one or more E-books, except to the extent consistent with Section VI.B of this Order and Stipulated Injunction, Macmillan shall confirm to Liaison Counsel for Plaintiff States the name of the E-book Retailer and the date on which it gave notice.
