01/18/2023		MINUTE ORDER. Upon consideration of the parties' January 13, 2023 joint status report 61 , and the statements of counsel at the status conference held on this date, it is ORDERED that by Friday, January 20, 2023, the government must provide defendants with a list of all of the defendants' products and their competitors' products that in its view, comprise the relevant product markets alleged in the complaint, and the defense must respond to the government's list by Tuesday, January 24, identifying which products they agree are in the product market and which, if any, they dispute. Upon completing this exchange of information, the parties must submit a status report to the Court by Thursday, January 26, 2023 addressing a single issue: whether, based upon the exchange of product market information, there remains a dispute as to whether the government can establish the effect of the proposed merger on competition in the relevant markets needed for its prima facie case. It is further ORDERED that the parties must meet and confer and file an agreed set of proposed revisions to the Case Management Order on or before January 26, 2023. The revisions should reflect the Court's rulings that fact discovery need not conclude by February 10, 2023, that the April 17, 2023 trial date will not change, and that the discovery occurring between February 10 and March 10 will concern the divestiture remedy. Finally, the Court notes that at the status conference, it granted the government's request to take three additional depositions. SO ORDERED. Signed by Judge Amy Berman Jackson on 1/18/23. 02/07/2023	86	NOTICE of Appearance by Elizabeth A. Gudis on behalf of UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (Gudis, Elizabeth) (Entered: 02/07/2023)
02/07/2023		MINUTE ORDER. Upon review of the parties' Joint Status Report 85 and proposed Revised CMO Schedule [82-1], it is ORDERED that the parties must file an updated status report by February 20, 2023 regarding their discussions on whether the government can establish its prima facie case. In connection with the parties' proposed revisions to the CMO, is FURTHER ORDERED that the "Joint Party Submission to Court regarding deposition designations" and the "Joint Party Submission to Court of exhibit lists and opposing parties' objections and the grounds therefor" will be due by 12:00 noon, March 20, 2023, and this deadline will not be extended. The parties may decide among themselves how to rearrange the interim dates to achieve that goal, and they must inform the Court of those dates in the February 20, 2023 status report, after which the Court will issue the revised CMO schedule. SO ORDERED. Signed by Judge Amy Berman Jackson on 2/7/23. (DMK) (Entered: 02/07/2023)
02/07/2023		MINUTE ORDER. As the parties have been advised in the past, the Court intends to exercise its discretion to establish limits on the numbers of exhibits to be introduced at trial. The limits set forth in this Order, which will be included in the Revised CMO, contemplate two phases or aspects of the litigation: 1) the introduction of evidence concerning the pre-divestiture impact of the merger on competition in the relevant market(s), if necessary; and 2) the introduction of evidence concerning the adequacy of the divestiture remedy. It is hereby ORDERED that the exhibits introduced in connection with each aspect of the presentation of evidence will be divided into two tiers: Tier 1 will consist of the critical exhibits each party believes the Court must read, and Tier 2 will consist of any other exhibits upon which the parties rely, including any background or foundational documents, or records underlying any summary exhibits included in Tier 1. The parties may cite exhibits in either tier in their proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement obviating the presentation of evidence with respect to the government's prima facie case that is, the pre-divestiture effect of the merger on competition each party may designate up to 100 exhibits as Tier 1 exhibits on this aspect of the trial.

		Each party may designate up to 150 Tier 1 exhibits for the divestiture aspect of the trial. The total number of exhibits for each side, including both Tier 1 and Tier 2 exhibits for both phases of the trial, will be capped at 600. This order does not address the disputed legal issues concerning the burdens of proof at each phase; it is simply intended to inform the parties of the rules that will apply at trial. SO ORDERED. Signed by Judge Amy Berman Jackson on 2/7/23. (DMK) (Entered: 02/07/2023)

The government has specified that it is seeking an order compelling ASSA ABLOY to produce divestiture-related documents from the files of nine ASSA ABLOY employees in particular, and that the collection of such documents could conclude on March 3. Having considered the defendants' objections, the Court hereby ORDERS in its discretion that the defendants must produce divestiture-related records from the files of the nine employees from February 10, 2023 through and including March 3, 2023, and that those records must be produced by March 14, 2023. The government must inform the defendants of any intention to introduce any of those newly produced documents as additional exhibits at trial during the meet and confer scheduled for March 15-17, 2023.
